

A WIFE FATALLY SHOT BY DRUNKEN HUSBAND

The Latter a Fugitive From Justice, Declaring He Will Not Be Taken Alive.

TERRIBLE SUNDAY TRAGEDY AT SEBRING

Sebring, July 27.—(Special)—After participating in a drunken debauch in Alliance, Mr. and Mrs. William Jackson returned to this town Saturday evening and later in the night got into an altercation which resulted in Mrs. Jackson being fatally shot with a revolver in the hands of her husband. The crime has caused the wildest excitement not only in Sebring, but in the entire neighborhood.

Jackson, who escaped from the scene of the crime, has been hunted by a posse and his capture is only a question of a few hours. It is not feared that Jackson will suffer violence at the hands of his pursuers if caught, owing to the circumstances surrounding the affair. He has been hiding in the woods but yesterday morning he appeared at the home of Ralph Urmston, of Bolot, by whom he had been employed, and demanded breakfast.

He told Urmston that he had committed the deed and expressed himself as well pleased over it. He claimed that the posse had been almost upon him several times during Sunday but that he had managed to keep from being taken. "They will never take me alive," he exclaimed defiantly as he left Urmston's house and disappeared into the woods. Urmston at once telephoned for the police and in a few minutes an additional posse had been formed to run the murderer down. A report received here late this afternoon was to the effect that he was surrounded and that his capture would be effected before night. Great precaution is being taken to avoid any of the posse being injured at his hands.

Jackson and his wife are former residents of Salem and until five days ago

YALE GRADUATE IN POLICE COURT

THE OLD STORY REPEATED

Capital and labor were well represented in the lineup that appeared before Mayor Weaver this morning. Of the seven victims gathered into the police net over Sunday, one professed to having spent nearly a quarter of a million dollars.

Dr. Crosby, manager of the house-keeping show, one of the attractions that the carnival company was not allowed to display in this city, was the onetime moneyed man. He was arrested by Officer Woods for being drunk and disorderly. When arraigned before the mayor he told an interesting story of his life and as a result got off with a small fine. In appearance Dr. Crosby is all that he professed. He has the marks of a cultured and educated man, but they are, however, interlined with the never-deceiving lines of dissipation. The latter he accredits to the cocaine and booze habit. "I graduated from Yale ten years ago," said Crosby, "and I was at the head of my class. My father died a short time after and by his will I received over $100,000. For a while I lived like a prince, threw money at the birds and was looked upon by everybody as a good fellow, but I finally acquired the cocaine habit and I, together with booze, landed me in this very undesirable position."

John Miller and L. Carrahan were taken into custody yesterday morning by Officers Spence and Wilson, of the Post End. Miller is a lather by trade and hails from New York. Carrahan is a local man, depending on a pottery for a livelihood. Both of them were staggering on the railroad track when arrested. Miller had a couple of dollars and upon his promise to get out of the city he was discharged. Carrahan said he only drank three bottles of beer and was not drunk. The mayor said he thought that much of the "evil stuff" would make any ordinary man drunk and told the fellow to appear tomorrow evening when the arresting officer will testify against him.

James Kelly and Charles McGinley, iron workers of Pittsburg, who have been employed at Wellsville, were corralled by Officer Saulsberry late Saturday afternoon. The officer charged them with being drunk and insulting a female. Together they were able to raise $6.10 and the mayor allowed them to depart. They announced that no pair in the country could best them in handling a ladle but were not so positive of their ability to store booze.

Henry Wilson is a most excellent judge of good whisky but he never knows when he has enough. Officer Spence ran him in yesterday. He will appear this evening at 7 o'clock for a hearing.

John Karrach paid $5 to the mayor because he forgot to pass up the last drink. Officer Saulsberry got him.

TOO MUCH MEDICINE

A Lisbon Boy Comes Near Dying From An Overdose of Belladonna.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special)—Frank Deemer, the 15-year-old son of W. C. Deemer, of this city, was brought home from camp at Shelton's grove yesterday in a serious condition. It was feared, from an overdose of medicine. He is better today.

With the remaining members of the boys' band, he went to Shelton's grove Saturday to go into camp. He did not feel well, and had a doctor prescribe for him before leaving. A belladonna preparation was given him, and an overdose together with his usual susceptibility to the effects made him delirious, and it was necessary to remove him to his home here. Two doctors were summoned and administered antidotes which soon relieved him. It is their opinion he had not taken enough of the medicine to have proved fatal.

ATTACKED BY FOUR MEN BUT STILL SHOWED FIGHT

John Wright Has An Encounter With Holdup Men, But They Get Nothing.

While walking along Fourth street, between Washington and Market, at a late hour Saturday night, John Wright, the West Market street butcher, was attacked by four men. One of the quartet struck him across the head and the others attacked him at about the same time. Wright was taken by surprise but he showed fight and was holding his own in spite of the odds against him when the men, fearing the noise would attract people to the spot, fled precipitately.

Wright's injuries are of a trivial nature. He thinks the men were trying to rob him and has reported the matter to the police.

THIRTEEN DEAD AND TWENTY HURT

Horrible Wreck of a Railroad Train at Glasgow, Scotland, Station.

Glasgow, July 27.—(Special)—An excursion train from the Isle of Man crashed into the buffer at the station in this city and as a result 13 people are dead, 20 are seriously wounded and two of the coaches were badly wrecked.

TRIED TO CROSS AHEAD OF A CAR

Foolhardy Action of Driver Came Near Resulting in Two Deaths.

The silly and unexplained actions of two of the Duke brothers Saturday evening came near resulting in the serious injury to a car load of passengers on a Pleasant Heights car, and that one or both of the Dukes were not killed is due to the prompt action of Motorman Byers, who was in charge of the car.

The brothers left the Diamond with a team and road wagon on West Market street about the same time the car departed, and whipping up the horses kept a little ahead of the car as far as the Horn switch, when, without any apparent reason, the driver pulled his team directly across the track and a collision was inevitable.

Motorman Byers applied the electrical brake but the car was too close and smashed into the outfit with considerable force. The car struck the front portion of the wagon and the lead horse, knocking the whole outfit clear across the track and demolishing one of the wheels of the wagon. The horses luckily escaped any injury, and though the Dukes indulged in some strong language which was unheeded by the crew in charge of the car, Motorman Byers and Conductor Barnett were in no way responsible for the accident.

BILL FOR PAVING WALNUT STREET

Board of Public Service Will Consider the Question of Payment.

THE REASON FOR DELAY

Among numerous matters of importance to be acted upon by the board of public service at its regular meeting to be held this evening is the question pertaining to the payment of the cost incident to the paving of Robinson street. It will be remembered that the board referred the question to council, arguing that that body alone had the power to dispose of it.

City Auditor Davidson and President of Council Horwell, in conference this afternoon, came to the decision that the board of public service must first order the bill to be paid and then it will be up to council to pass an appropriation ordinance to secure the money. President Horwell will meet with the board this evening and recommend that such action be taken.

The money, about $4,000, for the paving of the street in question, is due John Ryan, the contractor. When he took the contract it was with the understanding that he be paid in full just as soon as the work was completed. It has now been at least ten months since the last brick was laid and Mr. Ryan has certainly a right to demand his money.

Auditor Davidson states that Mr. Ryan would have received his money long ere this had those persons whose property abuts on the improved street done as they agreed. They applied

CAR OF STEEL RAILS OVERTURNED

Of the Eleven Men Engaged in Unloading Not One Escaped Injury.

Foreman Jeff Crawford and 10 Italian laborers had narrow escapes from death at 1:30 today and all received injuries which will lay them up for some time to come.

The gang was engaged in unloading steel rails from a flat car on the C. & P. tracks near the Thompson pottery. The car had been placed as near the tracks of the East Liverpool railway as possible in order to load the rails onto cars to be transported to the Beaver Creek extension of the street railway company. The men had partially completed the task and had removed all the rails from the side of the flat car next the river. The weight became so unequal on that side that the bed of the car turned over, leaving the trucks in place on the tracks.

Every one in the crew, 11 in number, was pitched with great force clear across the street railway tracks and

GUARD CAMP IS NO HOLIDAY

Soldiers Who Go to Newark Next Month Will Be There For Business.

BIG LOT OF SUPPLIES

Will Be Required to Feed Ohio's Militiamen on the Field—Zimmerman Gains a Victory in His First Fight. Capital Notes.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, July 27.—The important duty of providing the food supplies for the 6,000 Ohio Guardsmen who will camp at Newark August 17 to 25 will devolve upon Lieutenant Colonel Harry Freese, of Canton, chief commissary on the staff of Major General Charles Dick, division commander of the Ohio National Guard, and widely known in Columbiana county, where much of his time has been spent during the past five years as agent of the B. & O. Railroad company. It is estimated that it will cost $17,000 to feed the Guards and that the total expenses of the encampment will foot up to $75,000. It will be a division encampment and will be conducted along regular army lines.

Some encampments in the past were much like a summer outing for the soldiers and led many to anticipate these annual gatherings as occasions for recreation and mere pleasure. In recent years this impression has been dissipated. Each year brings these encampments more in conformity with regular army regulations and the passage of the Dick military law by the last congress placing the National Guards of the states under the jurisdiction of the president and on a footing like that of the regular army means that the lines will be more closely drawn this year than heretofore.

The troops will be sheltered in 2,000 tents. The state camp grounds at Newark are suitable in all respects for gatherings of the military and are now being prepared for its reception. The rations which will be served the soldiers will consist of fresh beef, bacon, ham, fish, bread, crackers, beans, rice, cabbage, potatoes, onions, coffee, sugar, salt, pepper, vinegar, pickles, apples, jam, butter and eggs. It is estimated that soldiers will consume 23 tons of bread, 3 tons of sugar, two tons of coffee and 25 tons of potatoes and other vegetables.

John L. Zimmerman, of Springfield, has come off victorious in his first skirmish for the Democratic nomination for governor. W. S. Thomas, of Kenton, a radical Bryan and Johnson adherent, and a bitter personal and political foe of Zimmerman, has been trying to make trouble for the latter in his county—Clark, which held its convention Saturday. State interest centered in it. Zimmerman asked the convention to endorse him and to give him authority to name his delegates to the state convention. Thomas kicked against this, realizing if he were allowed he would stand no show of going to the convention as a delegate, but he was overwhelmingly defeated

A NARROW ESCAPE FOR FIVE PERSONS

Harrison Family Thrown From a Surret in a Serious Runaway.

COLLISION WITH A RIG

William Harrison, wife and three little daughters had miraculous escapes from a horrible death on Avondale street at about 9 o'clock Saturday evening.

The Harrison family resides at Gardendale. Mr. Harrison drives a surrey and on Saturday evening came to the city accompanied by his wife and three children. Their shopping completed the party drove to the confectonery of C. A. Fowler on lower Avondale street, where they pulled up to the curb and were conversing with some one on the pavement. Suddenly the noise of a runaway was heard and down the hill at a breakneck speed came a horse attached to a runaway. The Harrisons had scarcely time to turn their heads in the direction from whence the sound came when the runaway struck their outfit with a terrific crash. Women screamed and there was the sound of breaking buggy irons and woodwork, while the horse was struggling and tearing to release itself from the tangled harness.

The Harrisons were all thrown out of their vehicle and the surrey was smashed to pieces. Mr. Harrison received a cut under one of his eyes caused by coming in contact with the pavement. Mrs. Harrison was badly bruised about the body, while the three little girls were terribly bruised about the head and body. Little Esther Harrison was pitched over the dashboard of the surrey and was rendered unconscious by the fall. It was some time before she recovered, and then it was necessary for the bystanders to assist her to rise.

The entire party were suffering great pain from their injuries and had to be assisted to their home in Gardendale. Yesterday it was found that Esther was more severely injured than was at first supposed and she is unable to walk.

The runaway horse was the property of T. J. Andrews, of the East End, and was being driven by Roy Colclough, who had been driving with Miss Myrtle Andrews. The animal was a spirited one, and became frightened at an automobile near the McKinnon home at the top of the hill. So frantic did the horse become that it kicked itself free from the buggy. The occupants were thrown out and severely injured, Miss Andrews losing a diamond ring valued at $200.

East Liverpool Case Appealed.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special)—The case of Ralph Paisley versus V. H. Ford & Co. has been appealed from the court of Justice H. P. McCarron, in East Liverpool, where the plaintiff got judgment by default for $850. The amount is claimed due for labor.

STARTED TO LEAVE HOME WITH THE SHOW PEOPLE BUT WAS STERNLY STOPPED

A Rochester Policeman Brought Back an East Liverpool Young Lady Fascinated With Carnival Life.

Miss Fern, the pretty 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Sadie Anderson, who runs a boarding house on Market street, was sadly disappointed last evening when she was intercepted at Rochester while riding on an east bound passenger train in company with one of the artists of the carnival company, her desired destination being Salem, where the company is holding forth this week. It was the intention of the girl to travel with the company as a ticket seller.

Miss Anderson, like many other young girls of the city, attended the show every day last week. There was something very fascinating about the life to her and when one of the "speelers" kindly asked her if she would not like to be a show girl it did not take her long to decide that such a life would be preferable to the quiet, uneventful hours that she passes in the Crockery City. The more she thought of the proposition the more she liked the idea and during yesterday she determined to have the fancy she had fostered for years realized and accepted the invitation.

Arrangements were made by the daring young miss and together with the person who had told her only of the bright side of the life she boarded the 6:10 train for Salem. Her plans would have worked admirably but for a boarder at her mother's home, who saw her step on the train and feeling suspicious, informed Mrs. Anderson. The latter rushed to central police station immediately and appealed to Officer Dawson for help. She asked that an officer at Rochester be telephoned to arrest her daughter. Dawson did as requested and in a very short time a Rochester policeman telephoned that he had the girl and wanted to know what he should do with her. Mrs. Anderson agreed to pay his expenses if he would accompany the girl home and in less than two hours from the time she left the city she was back under the roof of her mother.

BRIDE OF A YEAR SEEKS DIVORCE

KATIE ROHRBACH, OF THIS CITY, TELLS A SAD STORY.

First Month of Their Married Life Husband Spent Much Time With Other Women.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special)—Katie Rohrbach, of East Liverpool, asks legal separation from Talp Rohrbach and that her maiden name be restored. She says they were married a year ago March 21 and have no children. Mrs. Rohrbach says they took up their residence at the home of his parents in East Liverpool, but lived together but little more than a month, when she was compelled to leave him on account of his inhuman conduct toward her.

She alleges that he kept company with single women, took them skiff riding on the Ohio river, stayed out late at night and attended dances with them and was absent from her nearly all the time. To her entreaties he told her that if his conduct did not please her, she could leave him, which culminated in their separation about April 30, 1902. She charges that he has failed to support her and accuses him of unfaithfulness, naming Rosie Marshall as correspondent. H. E. Grosshans is her attorney.

ENTHUSIASM IS AT HIGH PITCH

As the End of the Contest, Draws Near the Interest Is Intense.

HOW THE VOTE STANDS

A large batch of coupons were brought into the office Saturday and though they were added to the respective candidates in their order, the standing of the three leaders was not changed.

"I am not a sporting man," said a friend of one of the candidates, but I would give a good round sum to know who is going to win those prizes. My man is good and strong and will surely win one of the coveted places. I have never been interested in a contest that there was more excitement manifested and it is doubtful if there is a single News Review subscriber who is not saving coupons for some of the candidates."

No higher compliment can be paid to an individual than has been noted in the large number of votes cast for the several leaders in the great popularity contest.

From now until Friday evening at 6 o'clock the interest will be intense, and the hustle for votes will be continued until the very last meeting.

The News Review would urge upon all who are collecting coupons that they be brought in promptly in order that there may be no delay in arriving at a decision when the last issue has been circulated.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

ENGLISH CONDITIONS.

In the Staffordshire potteries employment shows some improvement, although few factories have worked full time. The hollow ware pressers report employment as moderate; the printers and transferers as good; the ovenmen as moderate; the throwers and turners report employment as slack in the electrical branch. In the Glasgow and Portobello district employment is reported as continuing fair, but as worse than a year ago. The white hollow ware potters' trade union in the Glasgow district reports its members as all working short time.

Information has been received from 10 employers' association, 10 trade unions, with 5,942 members, local correspondents and employers, says the Labor Gazette, an English publication, and the reports are to the effect that employment in the glass trade continues bad in the bottle making branch in many centers. In other branches it continues dull generally.

Employment with glass bottle makers in the north of England also continues bad, and is worse than a year ago. In St. Helens and Newton-le-Willows district it is fairly good and is better than a year ago. In the West Riding of Yorkshire employment shows little change, and continues bad. In the Glasgow, Alloa and Portobello district employment is reported bad, and worse than a year ago. In Dublin it is reported as fair.

In London, glassblowers report employment bad, and worse than a year ago. In Birmingham flint glass makers report it as bad; flint glass cutters as very quiet; plate glass bevelers and silverers as fair. At West Bromwich employment continues moderate. Employment in all branches of the flint trade is slack at Wordsley, Stourbridge and Brettle Lane. At St. Helena sheet glass flatteners report employment as good; the decorative glassworkers as very fair.

With pressed glass makers at Gateshead it has improved, but a large number are still unemployed. In the Glasgow district the flint glass makers and pressed glass makers' trade unions report all their members as working short time. In Edinburgh the glass makers report employment as dull, and worse than a year ago; the glass cutters as good.

NEW YORK NOTES.

General stagnation prevails in the crockery line at present, as far as business is concerned, but these conditions generally prevail at this season. At the potteries in Trenton and its vicinity the activity is confined to general repairing of the machinery and workshops and the preparation of new samples for the traveling men. The western potteries are also quiet just now, but they are said to have the best of the opening of the fall trade.

It is generally believed that the buyers who will look over the samples in a few weeks will purchase with less caution than they did last spring, when the trade was less familiar with the rebate system. In fact, a heavy fall trade is looked forward to.

While business in the local ware-rooms is rather quiet, the mail order department is said to foot up a fair volume. A few of the southern buyers are now in town, but they have not yet started in to order extensively. It is the general opinion that there will be an influx of buyers next month.

As there is no particular reason for placing large orders for domestic crockery in advance the demand for this variety is rather light. The movement of foreign goods has also been light, but this is generally expected at this season.

DOS PASSOS' BOOK.

John R. Dos Passos, best known in this city as the man who tried hard to start a pottery trust and failed, has now become an author. Of his work the New York Times says: "The argument in the book of John R. Dos Passos, 'The Anglo-Saxon Century,' in favor of the unification of the English speaking people, 'to work for civilization and peace' and 'the benefit of mankind' rather gains than loses in force from the fact that its author is an American citizen of Portuguese descent. His scheme for the establishment of a dominant Anglo-Saxon empire may not seem to all his readers one that they would most care to have realized, but his book is based on a popular idea, while his treatment of the subject is both ingenious and thoughtful, and he invariably imparts to a sympathetic reader some of his own enthusiasm."

POTTERY NOTES.

The East Palestine Pottery company shipped a large consignment of ware to India last week.

Herman Kling, of East Palestine, has accepted the jumbo jigger at the new Cameron plant.

Says She Killed Man Near Salt Lake City While Defending Her Honor. Story Confirmed.

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 27.—A young woman giving the name of Mrs. Aurora Hodge, age 19, of Denison, Ia., entered the office of Superintendent of Police Carr and said she wanted to give herself up, declaring that she had killed a man near Salt Lake City on July 11. She said she had parted from her husband a few months after their marriage and went on the road with a traveling medicine vender as his bookkeeper.

When on a lonely road near Salt Lake City, July 11, the woman said, she attempted to assault me and I shot him with a revolver I had been carrying. I left him in the wagon and went to Salt Lake City to give myself up, but my nerve failed me and I took a train for Denison. I told my brother, and when he went to tell the authorities I fled to Chicago. There I secured a position as waitress in a Spring Lake (Mich.) hotel, but could not rest with it on my mind, and so I came to Grand Rapids to give myself up."

A telegram from Acting Chief of Police Burbridge, of Salt Lake City, confirms Mrs. Hodge's story, states that there was a warrant for her arrest for murder, and adds that she be held for the Salt Lake City authorities.

Lively Church Meeting.

Camak, Ga., July 27.—Two killed and six wounded, four of them fatally, is the result of a row at a negro church in which pistols and razors played a deadly part. The entire negro population of the town is terrorized and it is impossible to learn the real cause of the trouble. The shooting started over a dispute of some sort. There was a wild rush to get from the building and it is believed that many of the wounded were hurt in this attempt. Women and children were trampled under foot by men, who with knives and pistols in their hands were trying to escape foes armed in the same manner.

Detective Incurs Villagers' Enmity.

Seranton, Pa., July 27.—An attempt to lynch John Peel, a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad detective, was made at Foster by a crowd of villagers, who were infuriated upon learning that he had gained evidence which would connect a score of families of the village with wholesale thievery of brass and other junk from the company's property.

SERMONS OF FAITH IN LOCAL PULPITS

Rev. Mr. Swearingen, of Lincoln, Neb., Preached For Presbyterians.

TWO ABLE DISCOURSES

"I Know Thy Works" the Text of Dr. Jones at the M. P. Church—Other Eloquent And Impressive Services Yesterday.

Rev. Mr. Swearingen, of Lincoln, Neb., who occupied the First Presbyterian church pulpit yesterday, preached two strong and able sermons. In the morning he preached from Hebrews xii:2, "Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God."

He said this was a sermon of faith, but he could as well talk on the subject of discouragement. The Hebrews were losing, they had not already lost faith, and this appeal of the great writer showed them their shortcomings as well as pointed out the way of salvation. The sermon showed the power of God to bring back the people if they will but have faith, and argued that while there may be discouragements they can all be swept away by the sweet abiding faith which all can have.

Rev. Mr. Swearingen last evening took for his subject the "Fitness of the Inspiration of Life." His text was part of Galatians vi:15, "But God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ." It was a sermon of promise and gladness and worth to the Christian who faltered for a moment, but catching the inspiration of the promise humbly, although fervently placed all at the feet of the Savior.

TRUE ECCENTRICITY

Its Place in Christian Work—Sermon By Rev. Dr. M. B. Pratt.

The services at the First M. E. church last evening were marked by an unusually excellent musical program and a strong sermon by the pastor, Rev. Dr. M. B. Pratt. Dr. Pratt's subject was "The True Eccentricity, or a Singular Life." He contrasted the development of the Christian religion in those years when the pendulum was swinging backward and forward, first towards the monastery times with a tendency toward the aesthetic life, and told how in later years the pendulum swung in the opposite direction, which was typified by events in the age of Cromwell. He described how many different religious sects originated under the banner of Christianity and expressed the opinion that true eccentricity did not consist of wearing regulation regalia, nor in monastic life, nor in military array, nor soldiers' uniform. He spoke of a moral unlikeliness to the world.

Men were induced by human events to take charge of the moral movements for the evangelization of the world, and commended their work. The speaker told of men rising against the rooking filth which infests communities, and urged all Christian men to help to clean up such spots of sin and iniquity as are to be found in nearly every community, not excepting this city. He urged all men to have God and the gospel. He urged all to cast aside expediency from time to time and become a united Christian power, by standing firmly together for the right. Just political power is secured by united effort. Christian warriors should not waste their ammunition and time fighting grasshoppers when there were lions lurking around the edge of the fields. The speaker closed with the hope that God would make all men's peculiarities rest on themselves, externally and internally.

I KNOW THY WORKS

Forcible Application of a Text Relating to Asian Churches Made By Dr. Jones.

"I Know Thy Works" (Rev. ii:2) was the text from which Rev. Dr. David Jones, of the First M. P. church, preached yesterday morning. The speaker explained that the seven churches of Asia were probably organized by John, who according to tradition, outlived all the other apostles and died what is called a natural death. While he was on the island of Patmos God commanded him to write a letter to the seven churches of Asia. Each of the letters began with the same introductory, "I know thy works," in each letter God commends, warns and promises.

Of the seven churches God finds but one wholly good, four good and Laodiceans bad, but permitted it to exist five centuries in the hope that it would repent and then was so completely swept from the face of the earth that at this time not a vestige or evidence of its site remains.

God said of the church at Ephesus: "I have somewhat against thee because thou hast forsaken thy first love."

Pointed applications were made of this sentence, and the thought was brought out forcibly that there are many Christians who have forsaken their first love, and that God would have "somewhat against them."

"God does not say because you have ceased to become a Christian of rare excellence you have ceased to become a Christian at all. God's judgment comes a little slow some times, but it comes with feet shod with wool."

WHITHER GOEST THOU?

A Query Which Christians Of All Ages Have Found Most Pertinent.

"Whither Goest Thou?" was the theme of Rev. E. Lamb, of St. Mary's church, Pittsburg, who preached at St. Stephen's Episcopal church last evening. The speaker forcibly made the words to apply to the world and the people of today and he said that the query has been asked of all Christian people in all ages. The disciples could not realize how the departure of the Lord from their midst could benefit them, but they were told that they could follow when the time came and join him in the new world.

The speaker then told of the Christianity of the different centuries and how it was beheld by the people. He closed his remarks by exhorting his

Wherever there is no taint of incurable disease in the blood to complicate the case, Dr. Howard's Specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia will cure those diseases.

The Potters' Drug store, the popular druggist, is so confident of this that it will give its personal guarantee with every package of the specific it sells, to refund the money if it does not cure.

To induce the people of East Liverpool and other neighboring towns to try this wonderful remedy, it is making a special introductory offer of a regular 50 cent bottle, containing sixty doses, at half price, 25 cents. And with every bottle goes its guarantee to refund the money if the remedy does not cure.

Dr. Howard's Specific is not a "cure all." But it is the one remedy you need if you suffer with constipation, indigestion, headaches or any disorder of the stomach and bowels. Mr. W. S. Green, a well known business man of Crown Point, N. Y., wrote the following letter very recently: "Nearly ten years ago I was a mere shadow, and, according to the judgment of quite a number of doctors, my end was in sight. My troubles reduced my weight from 175 to 115 pounds. Finally an eminent physician prescribed Dr. Howard's Specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and I soon improved. My weight went to about 150 pounds, and has stayed around there. Previous to taking the specific I had to live on rice and rye bread, but now I eat anything and everything. I always take a dose after a heavy night meal, such as a banquet, and am all right in the morning."

It is the medicine that cured Mr. Green that the Potters' Drug Store is selling at half price and guaranteeing will cure.

CURES KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES, Rheumatism, All Diseases of the Blood, Backache, Nervous Dyspepsia, Clear the Complexion and Aid Digestion.

Give you a good appetite, renew life cells in young and old. Permanently restore youthful vigor and vitality. They tone up the whole system and make you feel like a new person. No remedy in the world to equal them. Take a few Nervan Tablets and note the wonderful effect.

ALCOHOL IN ALL LIQUID KIDNEY AND RHEUMATIC REMEDIES CONDEMNS THEM.

An ignorantly compounded remedy, containing alcohol, as nearly all kidney remedies do, will stimulate them so violently that an inflammation will be set up, and instead of being merely lazy the kidneys will become diseased. Alcohol congests the kidneys with blood and retards their activity.

There is no Alcohol in Nervan Tablets to interfere with the removal of all harmful sediment from the body. The Tablets soothe and heal the kidneys when they are irritated and inflamed. They cure the kidney diseases that make you drowsy, restless, sleepless and irritable; that make you pass water often during the day and night; that cause rheumatism, catarrh of the bladder, pain in the back, joints and muscles; that make your head ache and indigestion, stomach and liver trouble, and a sallow, yellow complexion.

No matter how many other remedies you may have tried and found useless, remember the great modern remedy, Nervan Tablets.

INTERESTING SERVICES

Large Congregation at East End Churches Yesterday—Several
Special Sermons.

Church services in the East End
were well attended at the different churches at both the morning and evening services. There were several special services of more than ordinary interest.

At the Erie street Methodist, the pastor, Rev. G. W. Orcutt, preached
at the morning service from the text,
"The Great Question," and drew much
of comfort and interest from it for his auditors. In the evening the officers of the Junior Epworth League were installed, after which the pastor delivered a short address for the children.

Rev. N. M. Crowe preached on the topic, "The Form of a Servant," at
the morning service and on "A Certain Man" at the evening service to large
and appreciative audiences.

Rev. J. A. McConnee, a missionary
from the United Presbyterian church
to India, occupied the pulpit of the Second U. P. church, lecturing upon missionary topics to quite a large congregation.

NEARING COMPLETION

Several New East End Structures to Be Ready for Occupancy Soon.

The foundations for the new postoffice building on Mulberry street have been set and the carpenters will begin work on the structure within the next few days. The room for the postoffice will be an addition to the combination store and residence building, a part of which is now occupied by the Sprague-Horger grocery and the entire structure is to be remodelled. The contract has been let by the owner,
H. Tatgenhorst, for the new postoffice equipment. The room is to be ready for the government by the first of September.

The interior work on the new Fouts building is now about completed and as soon as the shelving can be put in it will be occupied by Stein's branch store.

The new Davis building on the opposite side of the street is now ready for the interior work and in a few weeks will be ready for occupancy.

McAfee-Moore.

Miss Eliza McAfee and Oscar Moore were quietly married Saturday night at 9 o'clock by Justice L. W. Carman, in his Mulberry street office. The young couple were not attended. The young man is well known in this section, having been born and reared in Hancock county and he has many friends.
The bride is a pretty and talented young lady, who since coming to this city some time ago has made her home with her brother, Harlow McAfee.
They will go to housekeeping in town.

A Daughter Born.

A 12-pound girl baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Doc Shingleton, of Helena, last night.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

D. W. Tice, of Pennsylvania avenue, is reported among the sick today.

lor, of Mulberry street.

lar clerks at the Chambers store, is taking a vacation of a couple of weeks.

who were the guests of Rev. D. W.
McQuiston and family over Sunday, terminated their visit today.

PANAMA IN A PANIC

Newspaper Office Visited by Army Officers and Entire Edition Destroyed.

GOVERNOR MAKES HIS ESCAPE

Warned of Coming of Troops—Secretary of Finance Refuses to Be Arrested—Cable Agent Refuses Message from United States Consul.

Panama, Colombia, July 27.—Not
since the days of the last revolution,
when an attack upon the city by the Liberals was feared, has there been such a panic in Panama as occurred
Saturday night. The office of El Lapiz, the organ of the Liberal party on the isthmus, was visited by officers of the general staff of the army, who destroyed the edition of the newspaper.
One of the directors was slightly wounded, but managed to escape.

The next event came like a bombshell. A company of soldiers, apparently under orders of General Vasquez Cobos, commander of the National forces, surrounded the residence of Governor Mutis, but the governor and his wife, who is an American woman, having been warned a few minutes before the arrival of the troops, succeeded in escaping. General Huertas, commander of the battalion of Colombia, when he learned of the El Lapiz incident, repaired to headquarters, where he found General
Cobos. According to current reports
the latter ordered General Huertas to remain in quarters. Exactly what has taken place is unknown, but it is said that Dr. Aristides Ariza, secretary of the government; Fernando Arango,
chief of police, and Efraim Navia,
a member of the departmental superior tribunal of justice, are under arrest,
the last named for trying to argue with General Cobos the illegality of his action.

Secretary Resists Arrest.

An attempt also is said to have been made to arrest Senor Guerra, secretary of finance, but he refused to accompany the officer who went to his house to arrest him, and when the officer returned with soldiers to effect his capture Guerra had departed. The
Mayor Ossa. Governor Mutis spent the night at the British consulate, but it is reported that he will take refuge
in the American consulate.

United States Consul Gudgeon made several unsuccessful attempts to secure an audience with General Cobos,
who is a brother of the minister of
war. It is reported that General Cobos offered the governorship to different Conservatives, who refused to accept, and that he himself will assume civil command. It is said that Consul Gudgeon attempted to send a cablegram to Arthur M. Beane, the United States minister at Bogota, but that the agent refused to accept the message, claiming that the lines were interrupted, in spite of the fact that it is known that press messages were accepted.

It is thought that perhaps orders to refuse messages to Bogota have been issued to the cable company by the military authorities.

Government Held Responsible.

The national government in certain quarters is being held responsible for much of what has happened because
the soldiers have not been paid for some time and Governor Mutis declined to give more of the money of the department of Panama for national expenses, arguing that the central government owes the department
over $2,000,000, besides having obligated the department by a recent decree to pay the salaries of all civil national employees. The refusal of Governor Mutis is the origin of the discord between the civil and military authorities.

Violent articles written in El Lapiz against what the Liberals call the assassination of General Victoriano Lorenzo, the leader of the guerrillas during the recent revolution, who was court-martialed and shot May 15, precipitated events. The effect of what is now going on upon the Colombian congress, it is believed, will be favorable to the canal treaty, for the enemies of the treaty, it is now believed,
will be easily convinced of the necessity of certain clauses which it contains in regard to the control of this zone.

Colon, Colombia, July 27.—This city is perfectly quiet, as the coup on the part of General Cobos against Governor Mutis, of the department of Panama, is known only to a few here.
Developments are expected later.
General Luis Maria Gomez, governor
of this province, has been called to Panama and left in haste.

Go Prepared.

In preparing for your summer outing a little forethought may save you no end of trouble. Mr. John H. Manly, a dry goods merchant, of Belleville, R. I., while packing an outfit for camping a few weeks on Narragansett Bay, put in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for emergency use. The second day in camp
his little boy was taken with cramp colic.
The first dose of this remedy gave relief and the second dose effected a cure. Think of the pain and suffering this boy would have had to endure without this remedy at hand
to relieve him. Such cases often result fatally. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

TRAIN CREW HEAD ORDERS

And Four Lives Are Sacrificed in Collision on Chicago Great Western.

St. Paul, July 27.—Two trains met
in a head-on collision on the Chicago
Great Western railroad and four men were killed and about 25 or 30 passengers injured.

The dead: Charles Merkert, engineer of passenger train, Minneapolis;
H. Coker, fireman riding in passenger engine, but not on duty; H. Holman, engineer of freight train; Fred Horton, Dodge Center, Minn., passenger.

Fred Horton, the passenger who was killed, was said to have been standing in the vestibule of the front sleeper
talking to a friend, and was instantly killed, while his friend escaped injury.

Two trains were the Twin City
limited and a fast freight. The limited was running as a first section from Oelwein, to Minneapolis. The second section consisted of an excursion train running from Des Moines to Minneapolis and was three hours behind time.

The fast freight southbound received an order at Dodge Center reading that the second section of the passenger train was three hours late and the crew evidently misread the order and
attempted to make Vlasaty siding, between Dodge Center and Hastings, Minn., thinking that it was the limited
that was late. Meanwhile the limited
was pounding along at regular speed
and met the freight head-on just after the limited had rounded a curve at Vlasaty.

The baggage and buffet cars were completely wrecked and turned crosswise of the tracks. The first sleeper back of the buffet was badly smashed
in the forward end and the four rear
cars remained intact on the track.

These cars were used to bring the dead and injured to St. Paul and Minneapolis, where the injured were given surgical attendance. None of the passengers were seriously injured but cuts
and bruises were freely distributed.

Interesting statistics are made public by the British Sanitary institute, showing that since public health became a science at the beginning of the late queen's reign the average life of a man has been increased by three years and that of a woman by five years.

Thirty years ago typhoid killed 374 people out of every million. Today, with an enormously increased popula-

same ratio would undoubtedly be found true of smallpox and other diseases that were once considered almost absolutely fatal. Medical science may waste time and effort in searching for the elixir of life, but its efforts in the directions of stamping out disease by encouraging sanitation and cleanliness are certainly bearing good fruit.

The ninety-three years of life of Pope Leo is another illustration of the fact that scholars, philosophers and professional men often live to extreme old age, with a fair enjoyment of all their faculties to the end. But who ever hear of a professional athlete living to the span often reached by these men of sedentary habits?

Bad examples are infectious. An Illinois town is now patterning after a Delaware community where mob law ruled. It is also getting the worst of it. Breaking the law to mete out justice is impolitic as well as unprofitable. Better to grease the machinery of the courts and run it a little faster.

Russia is said to have arranged with French capitalists for a loan of $25,000,000. This is a significant move and will do more to convince the world that Russia is getting ready for war over the Manchurian question than anything that has hitherto occurred.

The theory that cigarette smoking weakens the intellect seems to be strongly borne out in the case of those Pennsylvania boys who could not resist the habit even while they were riding on a powder wagon, and consequently blew up themselves and the load.

As long as ladies are insulted on the streets of East Liverpool in broad daylight public indignation will continue deep and strong against the city council which has voted to reduce the police force.

The pertinent query regarding the hospital sprung Saturday by a local contemporary will be found fully answered in the columns of the News Review of the same date.

There is a painful quiet along Broadway where Midway noises lately resounded, but the residents are not complaining.

It is not a good time to talk of reducing the police force. There are still thieves and hold-up men left in the city.

There are worse railroads than the C & P. A train has arrived at a Texas town three years late.

Though Mr. Bryan has changed to the defensive, he cannot avoid being of fensive.

John H. Brannon.

John H. Brannon, one of the oldest and perhaps the very best known operative potter in East Liverpool, died at his home near the Thompson boulevard at 6 a. m. today, after a prolonged illness with consumption.

Mr. Brannon was born at Summitville, Franklin township, this county, 59 years ago, and has no living relatives except his wife and a step brother, Irene Darrah. He moved to East Liverpool 44 years ago and has been a resident of the city ever since. He learned the trade of kilnplaster and was engaged at that occupation until a few years ago when he was compelled to give up his work on account of the condition of his health.

John Brannon was one of the earliest and most active labor leaders the city ever knew. He, in company with George H. Owen, J. Q. A. Fowler and a few others, was instrumental in having organized the first assembly of the Knights of Labor ever instituted in East Liverpool in 1882. He followed the movement from that time until his

A Year's Canning At Stake

This is one of the seasons when spices are largely employed in canning and preserving. The appetizing character of these products is largely due to the spices, hence they should be pure, full flavored ones. retirement only a short time ago. Mr. Brannon was a member of the company that was organized to operate the Potters' Co-operative company now the Dresden. He suffered financial loss in this concern along with a large number of other operatives. Later he was identified with the Union company, which purchased the old Wyllie plant a few years ago.

Mr. Brannon was a member of the local Red Men, having filled all the important positions in the gift of the order. He was also a member of the Pocahontas degree of the order. He was a man of sterling integrity, numbered his friends by the score and was generous to a fault. The city has lost a good citizen and the cause of organized labor a true and loyal supporter.

Funeral services will be held from the late home Wednesday afternoon. Dr. David Jones, pastor of the M. P. church, officiating. Interment will be made at Riverview.

John Smith.

John Smith died at his home on Seventh street, Wellsville, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock and was buried this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. C. E. Clark, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, conducting the funeral services at the house. He was 65 years old and leaves a wife and three children. For the past 15 years his case has been a puzzle to physicians for the reason that his heart action was only half that of the average man. He was a strong man physically and until within a few days of his death had performed manual labor. Just what caused his heart's inertia has not been explained.

Mrs. Susan Long.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special).—Word was received here last evening of the death of Mrs. Susan Long yesterday afternoon at the Massillon asylum. She had been there about a year. She was 72 years old and had been a resident of Lisbon 15 years. Death was due to a general breaking down. The remains were brought here today. Four children survive her—Mrs. Mattie Thompson, of Cleveland; Mrs. Bert Graham, Mrs. Harvey Britton and Emmet Long, of Lisbon.

Michael Ian.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special).—Michael Ian, a coal miner aged 75, died suddenly at his home in Elkton last evening. Two brothers in Pennsylvania, his only known relatives, have been notified.

Hungarian Wife Seeks Divorce.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special).—Susie Korp, of Salem, through Attorneys Taylor & Baker, asks to be divorced from John Korp. She says they were married in Austria-Hungary in 1882 and have four children. She charges extreme cruelty, alleging that her husband has frequently used abusive language and has failed to provide for her. She also charges unfaithfulness on July 14 at Salem and on numerous other occasions.

CAR WRECKED

The Lives of the Crew And Four Passengers Were Endangered.

Car No. 17, Conductor T. M. Henderson and Motorman W. Nelson, was wrecked near the eastern terminal of the East Liverpool railway at 1:30 Sunday morning and the lives of the car crew and four passengers were endangered. Luckily all escaped with but a few minor bruises.

When within several hundred feet of the end of the line the car struck a gear box that had dropped off car No. 14. The front trucks passed over the obstruction, but the rear wheels were thrown from the track and the body of the car was thrown violently against the embankment. The escape of those on board is miraculous, as the car was running at a fast rate when the accident occurred.

The wrecking crew removed the car to the power house, where it will be repaired.

GOOSE-PASTURING

A Young Barber the Victim, Both Boys and Girls Taking Part in the Affair.

Officers Houser and Henthorne were called upon to investigate a peculiar case Saturday evening. It is alleged that a young barber of Main street was goosepastured on Saturday evening, a number of young men and women participating in the sport. The young man is said to have been stoned and otherwise roughly treated.

The officers succeeded in getting the names of all who took part in the affair and arrests are probable.

COULDN'T GET GIRL HE LOVED

So He Shot Her and Then Killed Himself—Woman Will Recover.

Tonawhah, Pa., July 27.—David McMains, a carpenter, residing at McKeesport, attempted to kill Mrs. Bessie Walton, aged 26, also of McKeesport. After shooting her through the cheek, knocking out several teeth, he turned the smoking weapon on himself and blew out his brains, dying on his way to the hospital. The woman will recover.

The shooting occurred at the home of Mrs. Walton's mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Walton. McMains followed the young woman here and tried to persuade her to get a divorce from her present husband and marry him, but she refused.

The coroner found a letter in McMains' pocket in which he warned "my single friends to stay away from women they cannot get, especially the married ones." He further says that Bessie was afraid her husband would kill her, and so both Bessie and he concluded to die. McMains was aged about 26 years and unmarried.

Boys Escape from House of Refuge

New York, July 27.—More than a score of youths of the House of Refuge on Randall's island tunneled under and through the thick wall surrounding the building and five succeeded in escaping. A dozen others who were discovered in the act of escaping submitted to arrest and seven who tried to get away were captured.

Youngstown, O., July 27.—The molders' and foundrymen's strike is on in earnest. Some 400 men are out in the different foundries of the valley. None of the concerns which are affiliated with the foundrymen's association have signed the scale. The men expect the Republic Iron and Steel company to sign within a few days.

Woman's Body Found in Sewer.

Mount Vernon, N. Y., July 27.—With a shoe laced tightly around the neck the body of a woman was found in a sewer by a boy whose curiosity was aroused by coming upon a break in the sewer. The body was too large to have been forced through the break in the sewer, and must have been dropped into a manhole 300 feet away. The coroner said the woman had not been dead 24 hours.

Newspaper Offices Flooded.

London, July 27.—Heavy rains Saturday night over the south of England caused serious floods and great damage in London. The underground railway was flooded and many printing rooms of London newspapers, built in the underground district between Fleet street and the Embankment, were flooded and unable to print Sunday editions until late in the afternoon. The heavy rains coincided with a high tide of the Thames, inundating several low-lying districts.

WELLSVILLE

A DRY SUNDAY

No Saloons Were Open in Wellsville Yesterday—Strict Orders Issued.

This city enjoyed the unusual experience of being strictly dry yesterday and the greatest interest was manifested by those who were athirst and had failed to provide themselves with a Sunday liquid supply on Saturday night. The East Liverpool contingent arriving here in the afternoon were amazed to find Wellsville "tighter" than their own prohibition city so far as obtaining intoxicants was concerned. In the penitentiary there was nothing doing and for the first Sunday in long time all the saloons were really closed.

Mayor Fogo issued orders late Saturday night that the saloons must obey the law and close yesterday. Early Sunday morning Chief Houser made the rounds and found ten of them open and dispensing drinks over the bar to customers. The chief ordered them to clear and shut the places at once, the order being promptly obeyed.

Mayor Fogo does not propose to have this city a mecca for toppers on Sunday and is also trying to reduce the number of native Sunday drinkers.

CROASMUN DEAD

Exposure Hastened the Death of the Wellsville Invalid.

Grant Croasmun, who was rescued in a dying condition from a sinking house boat, in which he lived, a few nights ago, died Saturday afternoon, the exposure incident to the rescue hastening death. His remains were taken to the home of his brother Will, Twentieth and Nevada streets, from which the funeral occurred this afternoon. Rev. L. F. Lavery, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, conducting the religious exercises.

Mr. Croasmun leaves a two-year-old son, one brother and one sister, the latter being Rachel Croasmun, matron at the Cleveland & Pittsburgh passenger station here.

TWO RIBS BROKEN

In a Fall Due to Heat Prostration. Farmer the Victim.

A. G. McPherson, residing on a farm three miles north of this city, was overcome by heat last Tuesday afternoon and fell from a load of hay in the field where he was harvesting. He was carried to the house and the usual restoratives applied. He rallied and then grew worse, but no physician was called until Sunday morning when Dr. A. L. Robinson, of this city, was sent for.

The doctor found the patient to be suffering from two broken ribs in addition to the effects of the sunstroke, and it is doubtful if he recovers.

CAUGHT TAKING POISON

A Wellsville Man Said to Have Attempted Suicide, But Was Prevented.

Horace Barton, of Nevada street, who is employed in the rolling mill, is reported to have taken a small dose of carbolic acid with suicidal intent on last Friday evening. He was caught in the act, and before swallowing enough to effect his desire, the poisonous fluid was taken from him.

It is said that financial troubles caused the action.

wanted to fight. He then modified his tone and wanted the officer to take $10 and let him go. He was locked up and later in the day was released upon the payment of a $4.50 fine. He had a large amount of money in his possession and the wonder is that he was not robbed as he lay drunk and sleeping in the open street.

Improving the School House.

The township school board of Liverpool township are making some extensive improvements on the old school building at Walker and the surrounding ground and even now the place looks entirely different. The school building has been painted, both inside and out, the building is to be entirely renovated and the grounds placed in better shape. A new path for the scholars has been made, leading from the building to the road on the hill.

Broken Rail Caused Wreck.

A freight wreck occurred at Free-man, on the river division, early Sunday morning in which several freight cars were derailed. The wreck is said to have been caused by a broken rail. The wreck train was called out, and after a couple of hour's time, replaced the derailed cars on the track again. No one was injured and but little damage was done with the exception of tying up the road and delaying traffic.

Reig's Body Shipped Home.

The remains of James Reigs, the C. & P. brakeman who was fatally injured at East Liverpool Friday night and died on the way to Pittsburgh, were claimed by relatives in Cumberland, Md., late Saturday night and to that point the body was expressed early Sunday morning.

A FLESH-FORMING FOOD

If Mi-o-na Does Not Build Up Good, Healthy Flesh Will Reed Will Return Your Money.

Of all the remedies in Will Reed's popular drug store, there are very few he is willing to sell with a guarantee to refund the money if they do not give satisfaction.

Mi-o-na, the famous flesh-forming food and cure for stomach troubles, has done such wonders among his customers that he is now advertising. "If Mi-o-na does not give a noticeable gain in weight, if it fails to cure indigestion and all stomach troubles, come back to my store and get your money."

Anyone who has been losing flesh or who has always been too thin, should use Mi-o-na. Thinness and emaciation are signs that the food is not properly assimilated and that you do not get the nourishment you should.

Mi-o-na mingles with the food you eat, aids its assimilation, tones up and strengthens the digestive organs, and puts the whole system in proper physical condition; it saves the digestive organs from exhaustive work. By its use the elements needed to put flesh on your bones will be selected from the food, and each day will show a noticeable gain in weight.

Commence the use of Mi-o-na today at Will Reed's risk. If it increases your weight and cures you of indigestion, it will cost you 50 cents, if it does not, Will Reed will pay for the treatment himself and return your money.

SOUTH SIDE

MANY ATTRACTIONS

Of High Character Will Hold the Boards at Rock Springs Park Theater.

The attendance at the presentation of the Passion Play at Rock Springs park theater last night was very large. The people of this city appreciate a good entertainment and Prof. McKenzie's production was more than satisfactory.

Manager McCollum has selected the artists for this week's stand at the theater with special care, and the patronage will undoubtedly be all that can be desired. The vandeville bill is headed by Maxwell & Dudley, the singing comedians. These artists have traveled the best circuits in the country and are sure to please. Their sketch, "The Singing Lesson," is one of the best and most novel on the vandeville stage.

Master Lonnie Follet, the child artist with the aggregation, has pleased audiences all over the country and is very clever.

George Yocman is a German comedian of rare ability and as a jester has no superior.

Gourley Bros., who are not connected with the local celebrities by the same name, do an acrobatic turn which has earned the highest praise from the most eminent critics.

"Fun at Grigg's Corners" is a sketch originated and performed by Henderson & Ross, who have been so well received everywhere that their tour amounts to actual sensation.

Matinees will be given Monday, Tuesday, Friday and Saturday afternoons at 3 p. m.

Maxwell, the comedian, who does the clever turn with Dudley, is not J. H. Maxwell, the genial manager of the park, as many have been led to believe. J. Howard is not an actor, and has no ambition in that line. He can't act a lick and don't profess to know anything about the business. This statement is made in the hope that the patronage at the theater this week will not be lessened on account of the misunderstanding.

The program for the week at the park is as follows:

Tuesday—Lady Workers, Scio college, Scio.

Wednesday—Sharpsburg M. E. Sunday school, Sharpsburg, Pa.

Thursday—Millvale M. E. Sunday school, Millvale, Pa.

Friday—Panhandle division (Columbus to Pittsburgh) picnic.

CRUP PROSPECTS

In West Virginia Are Fair—Fruit Poor. Plenty of Chestnuts.

It is said that there never was such a prospect for chestnuts in the recollection of the oldest citizens of Hancock county. As far as the timber can be seen young chestnuts loom up prominently and the tops of the trees seem to topple over under their weight.

The grass and oats and corn crop will be splendid, but the apple crop and the prospect for fruit is not so good. Many states depend yearly upon West Virginia for their supply of winter chestnuts, and the fruit raised in this state is shipped to all the larger cities in the United States. After the first effective frost the shipment will be begun.

VALUABLE DOGS WERE CRUELLY SHOT

ANIMALS WERE THE PROPERTY OF THE CITY SOLICITOR.

The Deed Evidently Malicious, Though a Farmer Says They Were Chasing Sheep.

Two valuable dogs, the property of City Solicitor George E. Davidson were shot last Friday morning near the Fernwood camp, and it is said the circumstances surrounding the occurrence are absolutely without precedent. The details are so revolting and the motives of the perpetrator evidently malicious.

A large party of young men had established headquarters at Fernwood, and had been engaged in fishing and hunting for several days. When they left the city two days ago, "Rod" and "Trip" were taken along. It had been the custom of those in charge to lock the dogs in the house during the night and each morning they were released for a run. On Friday morning the dogs were untied as usual and had not been absent from the camp long when "Trip" came running into the enclosure and it was immediately discovered that she had been shot. Sixteen slugs were found in the dog's body and the party began a search for the other dog.

The neighborhood was scoured in every direction, but no trace of the missing animal could be found. Late in the evening Captain W. M. Hill and several others located the carcass, which had been secreted in a dense thicket concealed on every side by thick underbrush.

The family of John Montgomery, who had insisted they had not seen the dogs, being confronted, confessed to having been thoroughly posted with the circumstances surrounding the shooting.

John Montgomery stated the dogs had been running his sheep, and he had shot them. He said he and his farm hand, Henry Bentley, had discovered the dogs running about among the sheep. Bentley went to the house and secured the gun. Returning he shot one of the dogs, and while his employer was examining the wound the other animal approached. Montgomery captured "Rod" and he was tied to a stake. Meantime the other dog had regained consciousness and ran to camp. Montgomery proceeded to his home, reloaded the gun and returned to where the dog had been tied, deliberately and maliciously shot him through the heart.

Mr. Davidson and the other members of the camping party insist that the dogs had not and would not run after sheep and are justly indignant. The owner had refused $100 for "Rod" only a few days before the brutal killing.

BROKE ITS NECK

Ex-Mayor W. C. Davidson's White Horse Reared Once Too Often.

The valuable white horse owned by Ex-Mayor W. C. Davidson fell and broke its neck this afternoon, dying instantly. The horse had developed a habit recently of rearing upon its hind legs.

The animal was taken out of the barn this afternoon and before any one could prevent it raised up with such a jerk that it went completely over upon its back, breaking its neck. The animal was a valuable one.

This is another disappointment to the friends and relatives of James Ryan, the Salem man who is hopelessly ill with tuberculosis in the hospital ward at the penitentiary, who are working to secure a pardon for him. They have no doubt but that the governor would pardon him at once if he were here.

CRIPPLED TEAM BADLY BEATEN

Defeated Before It Started, East Liverpool Was Shut Out by Wellsville.

A DAY OF JUBILATION

To the Fans of the Latter City—The Story of the Slaughter of Saturday and What Caused It—A Wretched Exhibition of the Game.

Standing of the League.	W.	L.	Pct.

Wellsville played horse with the aggression that Capt. Reark took to Central park on last Saturday afternoon and the only consolation the local fans have is the realization of the fact that only about half of the regular team was in the game. From the very beginning the team of the sister city began to rub it in and that they were successful in doing so to the satisfaction of the formerly disheartened fans of Wellsville is evidenced by the score, 16 to 0.

One would hardly have thought there was half the spirit in Wellsville as was shown throughout the game. They simply went wild and if a fan from the Crookery City even opened his face in favor of his team the Wellsville rooters, men, women, girls and children pounced upon him with a vengeance. In the eyes of Wellsville it was the greatest exhibition ever witnessed on this side of the Rocky mountains. It made no difference to them whether East Liverpool had a crippled team or not. All they wanted to do was to give the team of their rival city a drubbing. To the East Liverpool people present the actions of the Wellsville enthusiasts were childish. They simply went wild and there was no checking them. One of them was heard to say, "If it was any other team than East Liverpool, I would call it a punk game, but it does me so much good to see East Liverpool get beaten that I think it is a royal good contest."

The locals were really beaten badly before the game was commenced. You could not make anyone in Wellsville think so, however. In the first place the star twirler, Miller, who was scheduled to pitch the game, left for Wheeling early Saturday morning. He was substituted by Lawrence, who was sick and who was compelled to leave in the fifth inning. Stillwell filled his place for two innings and "Big" Heckathorn did the twirling in the last. That was enough to insure the locals a defeat, but that was not "all the hard luck." Wallace was out of the city on business; Chambers went home for some unknown reason and Brown also took a day, stating that he wanted to go home and visit a brother whom he had not seen since a mere boy. Capt. Reark took all of the excuses because there was no way out of it. He had to do the next best thing and he entered the field with Fred Heckathorn on first; Webb on second; Hamilton, of Wellsville, on third and Stillwell in right field. These new players might have made good under other circumstances but they failed miserably as it was.

Wellsville made runs at will. Four singles in the first gave them as many runs and they continued the onslaught throughout the contest, getting 18 hits and nearly as many runs.

CANCEROUS ULCERS

ROOTED IN THE BLOOD.

After the age of 45 or 50, when the vital powers are naturally weaker, it is noticed that a hurt of any kind heals slowly and often a very insignificant scratch or bruise becomes a bad ulcer or sore. At this time of life warty growths, moles and pimples that have been on the body almost from birth begin to inflame and fester, and before very long are large eating ulcers.

Whenever a sore or ulcer is slow in healing then you may be sure something is radically wrong with your blood. Some old taint or poison that has been slumbering there for years, is beginning to assert itself, and breaks out and becomes a bad ulcer and perhaps the beginning of Cancer. These old sores are rooted in the blood, and while washes, soaps, salves, etc., keep the surface clean, they are not healing. A blood medicine to purify and strengthen the polluted blood and a tonic to build up the general system is what is needed, and S. S. S. is just such a remedy. No poison is so powerful and no germ so deadly that this great vegetable blood remedy cannot reach it, and ulcers of every kind quickly yield to its wonderful curative properties. If you have an old sore or ulcer, write us all about it, and medical advice or any information you may desire will be given by our physicians without charge.

The locals had three chances to divert a shutout but Wellsville nipped them at the bud in every case. However, in the last inning they certainly were deserving of at least one run and it was due to Riley, who had been playing in right two innings that it was prevented. Webb was on third and Riley deliberately stepped to the plate and struck at three balls that a "hill top knocker" would have passed up. No use to make excuses, however, they won the game and with the exception of a few decisions won it fairly. They deserve credit for the great victory. It was three games out of eight for them and it is dollars to doughnuts that they will howl over the trio for years to come.

A pleasing feature of games in Wellsville is the enthusiastic rooting of the feminine sex. They turn out in droves and they certainly make their presence known. It gives the Wellsville team spirit to play and East Liverpool would profit by heeding the example.

MILLER MADE GOOD WITH WHEELING TEAM

He Pitched for the Stogies Saturday and Won His Game—Pearson's Success.

That Miller has in him the stuff good twirlers are made of, was demonstrated Saturday when he pitched the Stogies to victory against Ft. Wayne. It was his first game in fast company and as all the opposing batsmen were

THE PRESIDENT

Of the City Council, Wilkes-barre, Pa., Cured of Rheumatism.

Col. Wm. J. Harvey, a president of Wilkesbarre's city council, who will long be remembered for his great work for the city, was once a mere physical wreck, torn in every muscle and nerve from the frightful pains caused by rheumatism. He consulted the best physicians, went abroad, took mud baths, and almost every known treatment for the disease. A friend had had a very similar experience and Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy had cured him, so he recommended this great kidney medicine to Col. Harvey and he is today a well man, hale and hearty.

He writes straight to the point: "Dear Sir—This is to certify that I was permanently cured of rheumatism by the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy."

WM. J. HARVEY.

Rheumatism is but another name for uric acid poisoning which is caused primarily by diseased kidneys. Cure your kidneys and the rheumatism disappears. For all diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, as well as sicknesses peculiar to women, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is unquestionably the greatest medicine known to the medical profession.

It is for sale by all druggists in the Now 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles—less than a cent a dose.

strange to him his showing was quite creditable, in spite of the fact that he was touched up for 12 hits. He kept them well scattered, however, and Ft. Wayne did not have a chance to win. Miller was given the worst of it all through the game by the umpire and it became so marked that Manager Kain, of the Stogies, assaulted him.

Miller has an offer from the Wilmington, Delaware, team of the Eastern league, and may accept if the terms of the Wheeling club are not satisfactory.

Another pleasing bit of news to local fans is the way Alex. Pearson, who pitched the opener here for Homestead, made good with the Cleveland American league team. He held St. Louis to six scattered singles, winning with ease. He will hereafter take his regular turn in the box. In the game here he was hit safely seven times.

Manager McGregor Says the Wellsville Ball Team Will Not Disband.

Manager McGregor, of the Wellsville ball team, denies the reports current in East Liverpool and states that the Wellsville team will continue to play ball for the balance of the season and all future engagements. He also says that the team is making money right along, regardless of the poor crowds that attend the games at Central park.

The team will report for duty tomorrow and will engage in practice Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Thursday evening the team will leave for Jamestown, N. Y., to play Friday and Saturday. On Monday and Tuesday of the following week it will play at Kane, Pa. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday it will play at Johnsonburg, Pa., and on Saturday will play at home.

In an interesting game at Riverside park Saturday afternoon the East End Marines defeated the West End Brilliants by a score of 13 to 10. It was a tight game up to the last two innings when the Marines got four runs on errors. Calhoun and Duncan were the battery for the Brilliants and Oberlin, Dechant and March for Marines. The players did not support their twirler, Calhoun, who was credited with 18 strikeouts, while only five hits were scored against him.

TROOPS GUARD CITY

Two Killed and Twenty-Two Wounded Is Result of Race Riot.

DANVILLE STILL IN DANGER

Sullen Threats Made, but no Outbreak.

Soldiers Patrol Streets in Vicinity of Jail—Trouble May Come from Westville, as Miners Are in Ugly Mood.

Danville, Ill., July 27.—Two killed and 22 wounded, the police station wrecked, the county jail with few of its windows unshattered, the city in the hands of the state troops and a feeling of uneasiness and dread prevailing everywhere is the situation left by the race riots.

The Dead.
John D. Metcalf, negro, lynched and burned.

Henry Gatterman, killed by the negro Metcalf.

Many of the injured are at the hospital. Arrangements are being made for the funeral of Henry Gatterman. After daylight appeared there were restless crowds on the streets and each surrounding town continued to swell the crowds. There are many miners seen on the streets, and great unrest and a threatening attitude was reported from Westville, five miles away. Wilson, the negro assailant of Mrs. Burgess, was secretly taken from the county jail, but was returned shortly afterward.

Four companies of militia arrived from Springfield in reply to urgent requests sent to the state officials. The troops marched to the market house opposite the jail and there camped. The streets were cleared. There were sullen threats heard, but no attempt at an outbreak was manifested during the day. One hundred sentinels are patrolling the streets in the immediate vicinity of the jail, each soldier carrying 40 rounds of ammunition.

Says He Was Justified in Shooting.
Sheriff Witcock says he himself was the only man who shot into the mob. When the jail was attacked the sheriff said he became alarmed for the safety of his wife and children and considered that he was justified in shooting, although he was careful to shoot only in the hands or legs.

The 200 soldiers here, it is believed, will prevent further outbreaks for the present at least. Half of these will be on duty all the time. The leading citizens say the outbreak has been expected for a long time, as a bitter feeling has existed for several years between the negroes and a certain class of white persons. A number of minor outbreaks have occurred during the past year.

A Surgical Operation.
is always dangerous—do not submit to the surgeon's knife until you have tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It will cure when everything else fails—it has done this in thousands of cases. Here is one of them: "I suffered from bleeding and protruding piles for 20 years. Was treated by different specialists and used many remedies, but obtained no relief until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Two boxes of this salve cured me 18 months ago and I have not had a touch of the piles since."—H. A. Tisdale, Summerton, S. C. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger.

Paper and Politics Change.
Philadelphia, July 27.—George Knox McCain, for 14 years connected with the editorial staff of the Philadelphia Press, has purchased the Colorado Springs Gazette. Mr. McCain will sever his connection with the Press on Aug. 1 and assume charge of the Gazette on Aug. 15. After the latter date the Gazette will be issued as a Republican instead of a Democratic daily.

Three Killed and Seven Injured.
East St. Louis, July 27.—An accommodation train on the Vandallia road ran into a well-filled electric car on the East St. Louis and Suburban street railway near Lansdowne, three miles north of here, killing three persons and injuring a score.

Ten thousand demons gnawing away at one's vitals couldn't be much worse than the tortures of itching piles. Yet there's a cure. Doan's ointment never fails.

KEARSARGE ARRIVES IN PORT

Covers a Distance of Twenty-Nine Hundred Miles in Less Than Ten Days.

Bar Harbor, Me., July 27.—The United States battleship Kearsarge has arrived at Bar Harbor.

To a representative of the Associated Press Captain Hemphill said: "We left the Needles at 1:25 p. m. on Friday, July 17, and Mount Desert rock at 12:30 Sunday, covering the distance of 2,900 miles in 10 days, 44 hours, an average speed of 13.16 miles an hour."

Washington, July 27.—A great deal of interest was taken by naval officers in Washington in the run of the Kearsarge from Portsmouth to Frenchman's bay. It was estimated before the vessel left England that with good weather she would make the run across the ocean within 10 days, and this prediction has been verified. While the run the vessel just made is not at all remarkable, yet it is very satisfactory for a heavy battleship and indicates the engines were in good condition.

Admiral Taylor, chief of the bureau of navigation, speaking about the voyage, said:

"There was no test of maximum speed possible, but only a test of the usual running under all boilers. It is customary in ordinary cruising to use only about two-thirds or three-fourths of the full boiler power of the ship. All the boilers are used when it is desired to make a better speed and sustain it for a long period, while for short periods of excessive speed forced draft on the boilers is used. This is done, however, only for short periods, because the strain on the boilers and on the endurance of the firemen is very great. The bottom of the Kearsarge, although not necessarily very fast, is not at its best condition, because the vessel is not at present just out of dry dock."

THREE INJURED ON BIG FOUR

Flyer Crashes Into Freight at Wellington—Live Stock Killed.

Wellington, O., July 27.—The flyer on the Big Four road crashed into the rear end of a freight train, which was just pulling into a siding. Three persons were injured. They were: Engineer Charles Quayle, Cleveland, head severely cut, slight confusion and right arm swollen; Fireman Athle Hanahan, Cleveland, severely bruised and contused; Dr. Katherine C. Harvey, Serranton, Pa., ankle fractured.

The engine of the flyer before being brought to a stop ploughed through the caboose and 10 cars loaded with live stock and merchandise, finally landing on its side in the ditch. Only the mail car of the flyer was derailed.

Want Telegraph Line Removed.
Yokohama, July 27.—M. Pavloff, the Russian minister to Korea, having objected to the Japanese telegraph line from Seoul to Fusan, which was constructed prior to the Russian line, the Korean government asked Japanese Minister Hayashi to remove the line. The latter has declined to do so.

HOME AFFAIRS

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Juniors in Camp.—Prof. Perry J. Stephens came in from the Y. M. C. A. camp near Grim's bridge to get the juniors ready for the start to the camp bright and early in the morning. About 20 of the juniors will enjoy a 10-days' outing along Little Beaver.

Hollanden Club Officers.—The Hollanden club has elected the following officers: Clyde Huss, president; John Carnahan, vice president; Edward McKinney, secretary; Gaylord Albright, treasurer; Robert West, James Stanley and Arthur Hymes, trustees.

Rector's Vacation.—Rev. Edwin Weary, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, will leave this week for his vacation. During his absence the parochial duties will be in charge of Rev. Dr. Maloney, of Lorain. The vested choir of St. Stephen's will also be given a month's vacation beginning on next Sunday.

Manager Swaney Resigns.—Frank Swaney, for some years the local district manager for the Bell Telephone company, has tendered his resignation and expects to leave about September 1 for California to reside, hoping the climate will benefit his health. His brother Will will probably succeed him in the telephone office.

Boats Were Busy.—The three up boats yesterday, Keystone State, Kanawha and Ben Hur, had big passenger trips and were well loaded with freight. The Keystone is due down tonight at 8 o'clock and will receive seven Cincinnati round trippers from this point. The Ben Hur is also due down tonight. The Kanawha will be falling, with five feet in the channel.

A Trip of 900 Miles.—A party consisting of Hon. David Boyce and niece, Miss Olive E. Kirk; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Thompson and her daughter, Miss Minnie, and son, Dale; also Miss May Brick left this afternoon for Cleveland, where tonight they will take the steamer Tionesta and spend some time cruising on the great lakes. During the trip they will visit some of the largest and most beautiful cities in the lake region. The steamer will sail as far as Duluth, Mich., and cover a distance of 900 miles.

The Lowest Rate.—J. W. Smith, local superintendent of the Western & Southern Life Insurance company, has received notice from the Cincinnati office that his district has the lowest ratio of cancellations for the first six months of this year. It may be news to many that George Boissard, who was editor of the News Review in 1892, is manager of the ordinary branch of this company at Cincinnati. Mr. Boissard, it will be remembered, was editor of the Review before the consolidation with the News and edited the joint papers for several months.

TWO FRANCHISES HAVE BEEN GRANTED

C. A. SMITH AND NEWELL SYNDICATE GET THEM.

Applications for Southside Street Railway Franchises Favorably Acted Upon By Hancock County Court.

The syndicate, owning the Newell tract in Hancock county, a mile west of Chester, was granted a franchise by the county court at New Cumberland today to build, operate and maintain an electric railway from Chester to Congo. The court considered the application all the morning and until late this afternoon before giving the syndicate the right applied for.

A petition signed by 500 prominent people of Hancock county was presented to the court in favor of the franchise. The exact route to be followed this afternoon before giving the syndicate the right applied for.

As a result of the court's decision there are two companies now in possession of a franchise to run a line between the two points, C. A. Smith and others having been granted a franchise about a month ago.

SALOON KEEPERS ASKED TO APPEAR

CLUB QUESTION AND AFTER HOUR SELLING TO BE AIDED.

Three Men Summoned—Officers, Mistaken for Burglars, Narrowly Escape Being Shot.

Three saloonists are to appear before the mayor some time today to answer to charges preferred against them by Special Officer Todd, who served on the police department last week. The charges were preferred against the trio this morning and each has been notified to appear. They are T. O. Carman Ole Olson and James Walters.

Carman and Olson are charged with selling and keeping open after hours. Each will fight his case bitterly. It is thought that as a result of their arrest the validity of the club room law will be given a severe test. Both men have rooms over their saloons that are elegantly furnished and are said to be occupied by clubs, to which charters have been granted by the secretary of state and the saloonists contend that they have a lawful right to allow members of the club to congregate in the rooms at any time.

The affidavits designate the time of the alleged violations as Friday night. Neither saloon was entered by the officer. He charges that he saw Olson open a bottle of beer and heard incriminating noise. Todd called upon the entire night crew of officers to assist him in gaining entrance. They attempted to force an entrance in numerous ways, but were unsuccessful. Todd came near being killed as a result of his investigation. He was wandering around on the roof of a house next door to the saloon, when the occupant, Billy Humble, thinking him to be a burglar, went in search of a gun to dispatch the prowler. Failing to find the weapon Todd was allowed to escape.

Todd and Morris will appear against Carman. They allege that they saw the proprietor in the back room of the saloon.

had been living apart. Mrs. Jackson came to Sebring a short time ago and secured employment in a hotel. Jackson followed here and secured employment as a teamster. Five days ago their differences were patched up and they began living together again.

The couple went to Alliance Friday where it is alleged they engaged in a drunken debauch. Mrs. Jackson provided the money for the trip. They returned to Sebring Saturday evening. Just what led to the shooting is still a mystery. It is stated that some time after retiring Mrs. Jackson asked for a drink and the husband became angry. He began to choke her, heedless of her screams of terror. Jackson had no weapon at that time and it is alleged that his wife produced the revolver with which she was later shot. It is thought she had attempted to protect herself from her husband's violence with the weapon. Before she could fire the incensed husband grasped the gun and during the scuffle it was discharged, the bullet striking in the door of the room.

The struggle resulted in Jackson gaining possession of the gun and he fired two shots into his wife's body, both of them taking effect in the abdomen. Jackson then fled from the place.

Neighbors were brought to the scene by the commotion and found Mrs. Jackson weltering in blood and almost unconscious. She was given all the attention possible but as soon as conveyance could be secured was taken to an Alliance hospital. After an examination the physicians stated that one of the wounds, while of a dangerous character, is not necessarily fatal. In the other wound, however, the bullet pierced the great intestines 14 times. Her death is certain to result in a short time. The wounded woman has been lingering in a semi-conscious condition and the latest report from her bedside is that she is slowly sinking.

'Squire H. P. McCarron has returned from a two weeks' visit in the east. He reports having had a great time at the several summer resorts and that as a result of the vacation he is at least ten years younger.

While absent from the city the justice did not, however, allow pleasure to rid him of the ability for which he has gained a reputation—marrying couples with the grace of a minister. He had hardly reached his office this morning until a young man softly knocked for admittance and falteringly stepped forth with the request that papers be secured for his marriage. It was a great pleasure for the 'squire to start his year's work with such a job and he consented to get the license for the usual mere pittance. The couple are John G. Lackey and Miss Helen Foster, both well known young people of the city.

GRAUSTARK

We have a good one for our readers now—GRAUSTARK, THE STORY OF A LOVE BEHIND A THRONE, BY GEORGE BARR MCCUTCHEON.

Marie Bankhead Owen, reviewing the story in the Bookworm, says: A practical bookman has just said, "no book since Trilby has taken so great a hold on the popular fancy as Graustark."

Being a story of love behind a throne, it teems with scenes of adventure and impassioned romance.

The author, George Barr McCutcheon, himself an American, has given the reader a noble example of an ideal American as hero.

The plot is thrilling and well sustained, the story being told in vivid, terse English.

The motive of the story is the love of a man and a woman, and what that love emboldens them to venture, to dare, to renounce, to endure!

It is beyond the province of the reviewer to reduce the plot of a masterpiece of fiction to a compressed summary of the story. A zealous story reader delights in the discovery of what happened next as well as to revel in the style and the literary atmosphere.

I would as soon be given a glass of skimmed milk or a squeezed lemon as a book of fiction accompanied with a synopsis of its contents. Graustark I leave therefore to the pleasure of the prospective reader.

to council for the privilege of having the street paved and promised to pay for it by assessment. They have received their assessment but up to date none have paid. Why they have steadfastly refused to turn over the money is not known, but it is the opinion of a few that they were angered because the board of public service stopped the paving before it reached the point designated by the petitioners in their original request. They wanted it paved from Walnut street to the intersection of Pennsylvania avenue. It was stopped on the west side of the avenue several hundred feet.

If the board accepts the bill and orders it paid council will very likely make provisions for the money tomorrow evening.

The Latter a Fugitive From Justice, Declaring He Will Not Be Taken Alive.

TERRIBLE SUNDAY TRAGEDY AT SEBRING

Sebring, July 27.—(Special).—After participating in a drunken debauch in Alliance, Mr. and Mrs. William Jackson returned to this town Saturday evening and later in the night got into an altercation which resulted in Mrs. Jackson being fatally shot with a revolver in the hands of her husband. The crime has caused the wildest excitement not only in Sebring, but in the entire neighborhood.

Jackson, who escaped from the scene of the crime, has been hunted by a posse and his capture is only a question of a few hours. It is not feared that Jackson will suffer violence at the hands of his pursuers if caught, owing to the circumstances surrounding the affair. He has been hiding in the woods but yesterday morning he appeared at the home of Ralph Urmston, of Beloit, by whom he had been employed, and demanded breakfast.

He told Urmston that he had committed the deed and expressed himself as well pleased over it. He claimed that the posse had been almost upon him several times during Sunday but that he had managed to keep from being taken. "They will never take me alive," he exclaimed defiantly as he left Urmston's house and disappeared into the woods. Urmston at once telephoned for the police and in a few minutes an additional posse had been formed to run the murderer down. A report received here late this afternoon was to the effect that he was surrounded and that his capture would be effected before night. Great precaution is being taken to avoid any of the posse being injured at his hands.

Jackson and his wife are former residents of Salem and until five days ago

YALE GRADUATE IN POLICE COURT

THE OLD STORY REPEATED

Capital and labor were well represented in the lineup that appeared before Mayor Weaver this morning. Of the seven victims gathered into the police net over Sunday, one professed to have spent nearly a quarter of a million dollars.

Dr. Crosby, manager of the houchecouchee show, one of the attractions that the carnival company was not allowed to display in this city, was the onetime moneyed man. He was arrested by Officer Woods for being drunk and disorderly. When arraigned before the mayor he told an interesting story of his life and as a result got off with a small fine. In appearance Dr. Crosby is all that he professed. He has the marks of a cultured and educated man, but they are, however, interlined with the never decreasing lines of dissipation. The latter he accredits to the cocaine and booze habit. "I graduated from Yale ten years ago," said Crosby, "and I was at the head of my class. My father died a short time after and by his will I received over $100,000. For a while I lived like a prince, threw money at the birds and was looked upon by everybody as a good fellow, but I finally acquired the cocaine habit and it, together with booze, landed me in this very undesirable position."

John Miller and L. Carrahan were taken into custody yesterday morning by Officers Spence and Wilson, of the East End. Miller is a father by trade and a local man from New York. Carrahan is a local man, depending on a pottery for a livelihood. Both of them were staggering on the railroad track when arrested. Miller had a couple of dollars and upon his promise to get out of the city he was discharged. Carrahan said he only drank three bottles of beer and was not drunk. The mayor said he thought that much of the "vile stuff" would make any ordinary man drunk and told the fellow to appear tomorrow evening when the arresting officer will testify against him.

James Kelly and Charles McGinley, iron workers of Pittsburg, who have been employed at Wellsville, were corralled by Officer Saulsberry late Saturday afternoon. The officer charged them with being drunk and insulting a female. Together they were able to raise $6.10 and the mayor allowed them to depart. They announced that no pair in the country could beat them in handling a ladle but were not so positive of their ability to store booze.

TOO MUCH MEDICINE

A Lisbon Boy Comes Near Dying From An Overdose of Belladonna.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special).—Frank Deemer, the 15-year-old son of W. C. Deemer, of this city, was brought home from camp at Shelton's grove yesterday in a serious condition. It was feared, from an overdose of medicine. He is better today.

With the remaining members of the boys' band, he went to Shelton's grove Saturday to go into camp. He did not feel well, and had a doctor prescribe for him before leaving. A belladonna preparation was given him, and an overdose together with his usual susceptibility to the effects made him delirious, and it was necessary to remove him to his home here. Two doctors were summoned and administered antidotes which soon relieved him. It is their opinion he had not taken enough of the medicine to have proved fatal.

John Wright Has An Encounter With Holdup Men, But They Get Nothing.

While walking along Fourth street, between Washington and Market, at a late hour Saturday night, John Wright, the West Market street butcher, was attacked by four men. One of the quartet struck him across the head and the others attacked him at about the same time. Wright was taken by surprise but he showed fight and was holding his own in spite of the odds against him when the men, fearing the noise would attract people to the spot, fled precipitately.

Wright's injuries are of a trivial nature. He thinks the men were trying to rob him and has reported the matter to the police.

Foolhardy Action of Driver Came Near Resulting in Two Deaths.

The silly and unexplained actions of two of the Duke brothers Saturday evening came near resulting in the serious injury to a car load of passengers on a Pleasant Heights car, and that one or both of the Dukes were not killed is due to the prompt action of Motorman Byers, who was in charge of the car.

The brothers left the Diamond with a team and road wagon on West Market street about the same time the car departed, and whipping up the horses kept a little ahead of the car as far as the Horn switch, when, without any apparent reason, the driver pulled his team directly across the track and a collision was inevitable.

Motorman Byers applied the electrical brake but the car was too close and smashed into the outfit with considerable force. The car struck the front portion of the wagon and the lead horse, knocking the whole outfit clear across the track and demolishing one of the wheels of the wagon. The horses luckily escaped any injury, and though the Dukes indulged in some strong language which was unbecoming by the crew in charge of the car, Motorman Byers and Conductor Barnett were in no way responsible for the accident.

BILL FOR PAVING WALNUT STREET

THE REASON FOR DELAY

Among numerous matters of importance to be acted upon by the board of public service at its regular meeting to be held this evening is the question pertaining to the payment of the cost incident to the paving of Robinson street. It will be remembered that the board referred the question to council, arguing that that body alone had the power to dispose of it.

City Auditor Davidson and President of Council Horwell, in conference this afternoon, came to the decision that the board of public service must first order the bill to be paid and then it will be up to council to pass an appropriation ordinance to secure the money. President Horwell will meet with the board this evening and recommend that such action be taken.

The money, about $4,000, for the paving of the street in question, is due John Ryan, the contractor. When he took the contract it was with the understanding that he be paid in full just as soon as the work was completed. It has now been at least ten months since the last brick was laid and Mr. Ryan has certainly a right to demand his money.

Auditor Davidson states that Mr. Ryan would have received his money long ere this had those persons whose property abuts on the improved street done as they agreed. They applied

CAR OF STEEL RAILS OVERTURNED

Of the Eleven Men Engaged in Unloading Not One Escaped Injury.

Foreman Jeff Crawford and 10 Italian laborers had narrow escapes from death at 1:30 today and all received injuries which will lay them up for some time to come.

The gang was engaged in unloading steel rails from a flat car on the C. & P. tracks near the Thompson pottery. The car had been placed as near the tracks of the East Liverpool railway as possible in order to load the rails onto cars to be transported to the Beaver Creek extension of the street railway company. The men had partially completed the task and had removed all the rails from the side of the flat car next the river. The weight became so unequal on that side that the bed of the car turned over, leaving the trucks in place on the tracks.

Every one in the crew, 11 in number, was pitched with great force clear across the street railway tracks and

GUARD CAMP IS NO HOLIDAY

Soldiers Who Go to Newark Next Month Will Be There For Business.

BIG LOT OF SUPPLIES

Will Be Required to Feed Ohio's Militiamen on the Field—Zimmerman Gains a Victory in His First Fight. Capital Notes.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, July 27.—The important duty of providing the food supplies for the 6,000 Ohio Guardsmen who will camp at Newark August 17 to 25 will devolve upon Lieutenant Colonel Harry Freese, of Canton, chief commissary on the staff of Major General Charles Dick, division commander of the Ohio National Guard, and widely known in Columbiana county, where much of his time has been spent during the past five years as agent of the B. & O. Railroad company. It is estimated that it will cost $17,000 to feed the Guards and that the total expenses of the encampment will foot up to $75,000. It will be a division encampment and will be conducted along regular army lines.

Some encampments in the past were much like a summer outing for the soldiers and led many to anticipate these annual gatherings as occasions for recreation and mere pleasure. In recent years this impression has been dissipated. Each year brings these encampments more in conformity with regular army regulations and the passage of the Dick military law by the last congress placing the National Guards of the states under the jurisdiction of the president and on a footing like that of the regular army means that the lines will be more closely drawn this year than heretofore.

The troops will be sheltered in 2,000 tents. The state camp grounds at Newark are suitable in all respects for gatherings of the military and are now being prepared for its reception. The rations which will be served the soldiers will consist of fresh beef, bacon, ham, fish, bread, crackers, beans, rice, cabbage, potatoes, onions, coffee, sugar, salt, pepper, vinegar, pickles, apples, jam, butter and eggs. It is estimated that soldiers will consume 23 tons of bread, 3 tons of sugar, two tons of coffee and 25 tons of potatoes and other vegetables.

John L. Zimmerman, of Springfield, has come off victorious in his first skirmish for the Democratic nomination for governor. W. S. Thomas, of Kenton, a radical Bryan and Johnson adherent, and a bitter personal and political foe of Zimmerman, has been trying to make trouble for the latter in his county—Clark, which held its convention Saturday. State interest centered in it. Zimmerman asked the convention to endorse him and to give him authority to name his delegates to the state convention. Thomas kicked against this, realizing if he were allowed he would stand no show of going to the convention as a delegate, but he was overwhelmingly defeated.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special).—Anna E. Burson, of Middleton township, unable to live happily with her husband, George H. Burson, has left him and has petitioned the court to decree her temporary alimony pending a hearing, and permanent alimony after the testimony has been presented to the court. The defendant has been enjoined from disposing of a farm of 65 acres in Middleton township or any part of his personal property.

In her petition the plaintiff says they were married September 6, 1895, at Chillicothe, O., and have two children, Harry, aged 6, and Grace, aged 3 years. Mrs. Burson charges habitual drunkenness and extreme cruelty, alleging that her husband has frequently struck her, and threatened to take her children away from her.

Bye, of the firm of Bye & Bye, received word from Iowa Saturday evening that Mrs. Bye, who went there to visit a few weeks ago, is ill and in a rather serious condition. A NARROW ESCAPE FOR FIVE PERSONS

Harrison Family Thrown From a Surret in a Serious Runaway.

COLLISION WITH A RIG

William Harrison, wife and three little daughters had miraculous escapes from a horrible death on Avondale street at about 9 o'clock Saturday evening.

The Harrison family resides at Gardendale. Mr. Harrison drives a surrey and on Saturday evening came to the city accompanied by his wife and three children. Their shopping completed the party drove to the confectionery of C. A. Fowler on lower Avondale street, where they pulled up to the curb and were conversing with some one on the pavement. Suddenly the noise of a runaway was heard and down the hill at a breakneck speed came a horse attached to a runaway. The Harrisons had scarcely time to turn their heads in the direction from whence the sound came when the runaway struck their outfit with a terrific crash. Women screamed and there was the sound of breaking buggy iron and woodwork, while the horse was struggling and tearing to release itself from the tangled harness.

The Harrisons were all thrown out of their vehicle and the surrey was smashed to pieces. Mr. Harrison received a cut under one of his eyes caused by coming in contact with the pavement. Mrs. Harrison was badly bruised about the body, while the three little girls were terribly bruised about the head and body. Little Esther Harrison was pitched over the dashboard of the surrey and was rendered unconscious by the fall. It was some time before she recovered, and then it was necessary for the bystanders to assist her to rise.

The entire party were suffering great pain from their injuries and had to be assisted to their home in Gardendale. Yesterday it was found that Esther was more severely injured than was at first supposed and she is unable to walk.

The runaway horse was the property of T. J. Andrews, of the East End, and was being driven by Roy Colclough, who had been driving with Miss Myrtle Andrews. The animal was a spirited one, and became frightened at an automobile near the McKinnon home at the top of the hill. So frantic did the horse become that it kicked itself free from the buggy. The occupants were thrown out and severely injured, Miss Andrews losing a diamond ring valued at $200.

East Liverpool Case Appealed.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special).—The case of Ralph Paisley versus V. H. Ford & Co. has been appealed from the court of Justice H. P. McCarron, in East Liverpool, where the plaintiff got judgment by default for $650. The amount is claimed due for labor.

STARTED TO LEAVE HOME WITH THE SHOW PEOPLE BUT WAS STERNLY STOPPED

A Rochester Policeman Brought Back an East Liverpool Young Lady Fascinated With Carnival Life.

Miss Fern, the pretty 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Sadie Anderson, who runs a boarding house on Market street, was sadly disappointed last evening when she was intercepted at Rochester while riding on an east bound passenger train in company with one of the artists of the carnival company, her desired destination being Salem, where the company is holding forth this week. It was the intention of the girl to travel with the company as a ticket seller.

Miss Anderson, like many other young girls of the city, attended the show every day last week. There was something very fascinating about the life to her and when one of the "speelers" kindly asked her if she would not like to be a show girl it did not take her long to decide that such a life would be preferable to the quiet, uneventful hours that she passes in the Crockery City. The more she thought of the proposition the more she liked the idea and during yesterday she determined to have the fancy she had fostered for years realized and accepted the invitation.

Arrangements were made by the daring young miss and together with the person who had told her only of the bright side of the life she boarded the 6:10 train for Salem. Her plans would have worked admirably but for a boarder at her mother's home, who saw her step on the train and feeling suspicious, informed Mrs. Anderson. The latter rushed to central police station immediately and appealed to Officer Dawson for help. She asked that an officer at Rochester be telephoned to arrest her daughter. Dawson did as requested and in a very short time a Rochester policeman telephoned that he had the girl and wanted to know what he should do with her. Mrs. Anderson agreed to pay his expenses if he would accompany the girl home and in less than two hours from the time she left the city she was back under the roof of her mother.

BRIDE OF A YEAR SEEKS DIVORCE

KATIE ROHRBACH, OF THIS CITY, TELLS A SAD STORY.

First Month of Their Married Life Husband Spent Much Time With Other Women.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special).—Katie Rohrbach, of East Liverpool, asks legal separation from Talp. Rohrbach and that her maiden name be restored. She says they were married a year ago March 21 and have no children. Mrs. Rohrbach says they took up their residence at the home of his parents in East Liverpool, but lived together but little more than a month, when she was compelled to leave him on account of his inhuman conduct toward her.

She alleges that he kept company with single women, took them skiff riding on the Ohio river, stayed out late at night and attended dances with them and was absent from her nearly all the time. To her entreaties he told her that if his conduct did not please her, she could leave him, which culminated in their separation about April 30, 1902. She charges that he has failed to support her and accuses him of unfaithfulness, naming Rosie Marshall as correspondent. H. E. Grosshans is her attorney.

ENTHUSIASM IS AT HIGH PITCH

As the End of the Contest, Draws Near the Interest Is Intense.

HOW THE VOTE STANDS

A large batch of coupons were brought into the office Saturday and though they were added to the respective candidates in their order, the standing of the three leaders was not changed.

"I am not a sporting man," said a friend of one of the candidates, but I would give a good round sum to know who is going to win those prizes. My man is good and strong and will surely win one of the coveted places. I have never been interested in a contest that there was more excitement manifested and it is doubtful if there is a single News Review subscriber who is not saving coupons for some of the candidates."

No higher compliment can be paid to an individual than has been noted in the large number of votes cast for the several leaders in the great popularity contest.

From now until Friday evening at 6 o'clock the interest will be intense, and the hustle for votes will be continued until the very last meeting.

The News Review would urge upon all who are collecting coupons that they be brought in promptly in order that there may be no delay in arriving at a decision when the last issue has been circulated.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

ENGLISH CONDITIONS.

In the Staffordshire potteries employment shows some improvement, although few factories have worked full time. The hollow ware pressers report employment as moderate, the printers and transferers as good, the ovenmen as moderate; the throwers and turners report employment as slack in the electrical branch. In the Glasgow and Portobello district employment is reported as continuing fair, but as worse than a year ago. The white hollow ware potters' trade union in the Glasgow district reports its members as all working short time.

Information has been received from 10 employers' association, 10 trade unions, with 5,042 members, local correspondents and employers, says the Labor Gazette, an English publication, and the reports are to the effect that employment in the glass trade continues bad in the bottle making branch in many centers. In other branches it continues dull generally.

Employment with glass bottle makers in the north of England also continues bad, and is worse than a year ago. In St. Helens and Newton-Willows district it is fairly good and is better than a year ago. In the West Riding of Yorkshire employment shows little change, and continues bad. In the Glasgow, Alloa and Portobello district employment is reported bad, and worse than a year ago. In Dublin it is reported as fair.

In London, glassblowers report employment bad, and worse than a year ago. In Birmingham flint glass makers report it as bad; flint glass cutters as very quiet; plate glass bevelers and silverers as fair. At West Bromwich employment continues moderate. Employment in all branches of the flint trade is slack at Wordsley, Stourbridge and Birtley. At St. Helens sheet glass flatteners report employment as good; the decorative glass workers as very fair.

With pressed glass makers at Gateshead it has improved, but a large number are still unemployed. In the Glasgow district the flint glass makers and pressed glass makers' trade unions report all their members as working short time. In Edinburgh the glass makers report employment as dull, and worse than a year ago; the glass cutters as good.

NEW YORK NOTES.

General stagnation prevails in the crockery line at present, as far as business is concerned, but these conditions generally prevail at this season. At the potteries in Trenton and its vicinity the activity is confined to general repairing of the machinery and workshops and the preparation of new samples for the traveling men. The western potteries are also quiet just now, but they are said to have the best of the opening of the fall trade.

It is generally believed that the buyers who will look over the samples in a few weeks will purchase with less caution than they did last spring, when the trade was less familiar with the rebate system. In fact, a heavy fall trade is looked forward to.

While business in the local ware-rooms is rather quiet, the mail order department is said to foot up a fair volume. A few of the southern buyers are now in town, but they have not yet started in to order extensively. It is the general opinion that there will be an influx of buyers next month.

As there is no particular reason for placing large orders for domestic crockery in advance the demand for this variety is rather light. The move-

DOS PASSOS' BOOK.

John R. Dos Passos, best known in this city as the man who tried hard to start a pottery trust and failed, has now become an author. Of his work the New York Times says: "The argument in the book of John R. Dos Passos, 'The Anglo-Saxon Century,' in favor of the unification of the English-speaking people, to work for civilization and peace and the benefit of mankind' rather gains than loses in force from the fact that its author is an American citizen of Portuguese descent. His scheme for the establishment of a dominant Anglo-Saxon empire may not seem to all his readers one that they would most care to have realized, but his book is based on a popular idea, while his treatment of the subject is both ingenious and thoughtful, and he invariably imparts to a sympathetic reader some of his own enthusiasm."

Says She Killed Man Near Salt Lake City While Defending Her Honor. Story Confirmed.

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 27.—A young woman giving the name of Mrs. Aurora Hodge, age 19, of Denison, Ia., entered the office of Superintendent of Police Carr and said she wanted to give herself up, declaring that she had killed a man near Salt Lake City on July 11. She said she had parted from her husband a few months after their marriage and went on the road with a traveling medicine vender as his bookkeeper.

"When on a lonely road near Salt Lake City, July 11," the woman said, "I attempted to assault me and I shot him with a revolver I had been carrying. I left him in the wagon and went to Salt Lake City to give myself up, but my nerve failed me and I took a train for Denison. I told my brother, and when he went to tell the authorities I fled to Chicago. There I secured a position as waitress in a Spring Lake (Mich.) hotel, but could not rest with it on my mind, and so I came to Grand Rapids to give myself up."

A telegram from Acting Chief of Police Burbridge, of Salt Lake City, confirms Mrs. Hodge's story, states that there was a warrant for her arrest for murder, and asks that she be held for the Salt Lake City authorities.

Lively Church Meeting.

Camak, Ga., July 27.—Two killed and six wounded, four of them fatally, is the result of a row at a negro church in which pistols and razors played a deadly part. The entire negro population of the town is terrorized and it is impossible to learn the real cause of the trouble. The shooting started over a dispute of some sort. There was a wild rush to get from the building and it is believed that many of the wounded were hurt in this attempt. Women and children were trampled under foot by men, who with knives and pistols in their hands were trying to escape foes armed in the same manner.

Detective Incurs Villagers' Enmity. Scranton, Pa., July 27.—An attempt to lynch John Peel, a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad detective, was made at Foster by a crowd of villagers, who were infuriated upon learning that he had gained evidence which would connect a score of families of the village with wholesale thievery of brass and other junk from the company's property.

SERMONS OF FAITH IN LOCAL PULPITS

Rev. Mr. Swearingen, of Lincoln, Neb., Preached For Presbyterians.

TWO ABLE DISCOURSES

"I Know Thy Works" the Text of Dr. Jones at the M. P. Church—Other Eloquent And Impressive Services Yesterday.

Rev. Mr. Swearingen, of Lincoln, Neb., who occupied the First Presbyterian church pulpit yesterday, preached two strong and able sermons. In the morning he preached from Hebrews xii:2, "Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God."

He said this was a sermon of faith, but he could as well talk on the subject of discouragement. The Hebrews were losing, they had not already lost faith, and this appeal of the great writer showed them their shortcomings as well as pointed out the way of salvation. The sermon showed the power of God to bring back the people if they will but have faith, and argued that while there may be discouragements they can all be swept away by the sweet abiding faith which all can have.

Rev. Mr. Swearingen last evening took for his subject the "Fitness of the Inspiration of Life." His text was part of Galatians vi:15, "But God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ." It was a sermon of promise and gladness and worth to the Christian who faltered for a moment, but catching the inspiration of the promise humbly, although fervently placed all at the feet of the Savior.

TRUE ECCENTRICITY

Its Place in Christian Work—Sermon By Rev. Dr. M. B. Pratt.

The services at the First M. E. church last evening were marked by an unusually excellent musical program and a strong sermon by the pastor, Rev. Dr. M. B. Pratt. Dr. Pratt's subject was "The True Eccentricity, or a Singular Life." He contrasted the development of the Christian religion in those years when the pendulum was swinging backward and forward, first towards the monastery times with a tendency toward the aesthetic life, and told how in later years the pendulum swung in the opposite direction, which was typified by events in the age of Cromwell. He described how many different religious sects originated under the banner of Christianity and expressed the opinion that true eccentricity did not consist of wearing regulation regalia, nor in monastic life, nor in military array, nor soldiers' uniform. He spoke of a moral unlikeliness to the world.

Men were induced by human events to take charge of the moral movements for the evangelization of the world, and commended their work. The speaker told of men rising against the reeking filth which infests communities, and urged all Christian men to help to clean up such spots of sin and iniquity as are to be found in nearly every community, not excepting this city. He urged all men to have God and the gospels. He urged all to cast aside expediency from time to time and become a united Christian power, by standing firmly together for the right. Just political power is secured by united effort. Christian warriors should not waste their ammunition and time fighting grasshoppers when there were lions lurking around the edge of the fields. The speaker closed with the hope that God would make all men's peculiarities rest on themselves, externally and internally.

I KNOW THY WORKS

Forceful Application of a Text Relating to Asian Churches Made By Dr. Jones.

"I Know Thy Works" (Rev. ii:2) was the text from which Rev. Dr. David Jones, of the First M. P. church, preached yesterday morning. The speaker explained that the seven churches of Asia were probably organized by John, who according to tradition, outlived all the other apostles and died what is called a natural death. While he was on the island of Patmos God commanded him to write a letter to the seven churches of Asia. Each of the letters began with the same introductory, "I know thy works." In each letter God commends, warns and promises.

Of the seven churches God finds but one wholly good, four good and Laodiceans bad, but permitted it to exist five

centuries in the hope that it would repent and then was so completely swept from the face of the earth that at this time not a vestige or evidence of its site remains.

God said of the church at Ephesus: "I have somewhat against thee because thou hast forsaken thy first love."

Pointed applications were made of this sentence, and the thought was brought out forcibly that there are many Christians who have forsaken their first love, and that God would have "somewhat against them."

"God does not say because you have ceased to become a Christian of rare excellence you have ceased to become a Christian at all. God's judgment comes a little slow some times, but it comes with feet shod with wool."

WHITHER GOEST THOU?

A Query Which Christians Of All Ages Have Found Most Pertinent.

"Whither Goest Thou?" was the theme of Rev. E. Lamb, of St. Mary's church, Pittsburgh, who preached at St. Stephen's Episcopal church last evening. The speaker forcibly made the words to apply to the world and the people of today and he said that the query has been asked of all Christian people in all ages. The disciples could not realize how the departure of the Lord from their midst could benefit them, but they were told that they could follow when the time came and join Him in the new world.

The speaker then told of the Christianity of the different centuries and how it was beheld by the people. He closed his remarks by exhorting his

Wherever there is no taint of incurable disease in the blood to complicate the case, Dr. Howard's Specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia will cure those diseases.

The Potters' Drug store, the popular druggist, is so confident of this that it will give its personal guarantee with every package of the specific it sells, to refund the money if it does not cure.

To induce the people of East Liverpool and other neighboring towns to try this wonderful remedy, it is making a special introductory offer of a regular 50 cent bottle, containing sixty doses, at half price, 25 cents. And with every bottle goes its guarantee to refund the money if the remedy does not cure.

Dr. Howard's Specific is not a "cure all." But it is the one remedy you need if you suffer with constipation, indigestion, headaches or any disorder of the stomach and bowels. Mr. W. S. Green, a well known business man of Crown Point, N. Y., wrote the following letter very recently: "Nearly ten years ago I was a mere shadow, and, according to the judgment of quite a number of doctors, my end was in sight. My troubles reduced my weight from 175 to 115 pounds. Finally an eminent physician prescribed Dr. Howard's Specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and I soon improved. My weight went to about 150 pounds, and has stayed around there. Previous to taking the specific I had to live on rice and rye bread but now I eat anything and everything. I always take a dose after a heavy night meal, such as a banquet, and am all right in the morning."

It is the medicine that cured Mr. Green that the Potters' Drug Store is selling at half price and guaranteeing will cure.

EAST END

Large Congregation at East End Churches Yesterday—Several
Special Sermons.

Church services in the East End
were well attended at the different churches at both the morning and
special services of more than ordinary
interest.

At the Erie street Methodist, the
pastor, Rev. G. W. Orcutt, preached
at the morning service from the text,
"The Great Question," and drew much
of comfort and interest from it for his auditors. In the evening the officers of the Junior Epworth League were installed, after which the pastor
delivered a short address for the children.

Rev. N. M. Crowe preached on the topic, "The Form of a Servant," at
the morning service and on "A Certain Man" at the evening service to large
and appreciative audiences.

Rev. J. A. McConnee, a missionary
from the United Presbyterian church
to India, occupied the pulpit of the Second U. P. church, lecturing upon missionary topics to quite a large congregation.

The new Davis building on the op-

PANAMA IN A PANIC

Army Officers and Entire Edition Destroyed.

GOVERNOR MAKES HIS ESCAPE

Warned of Coming of Troops—Secretary of Finance Refuses to Be Ar-
sage from United States Consul.

Panama, Colombia, July 27.—Not
since the days of the last revolution,
when an attack upon the city by the
such a panic in Panama as occurred
Saturday night. The office of El La-
piz, the organ of the Liberal party on
the isthmus, was visited by officers of the general staff of the army, who destroyed the edition of the newspaper.
One of the directors was slightly
wounded, but managed to escape.

The next event came like a bomb-
shell. A company of soldiers, apparently under orders of General Vasquez Cobos, commander of the National forces, surrounded the residence
of Governor Mutis, but the governor
and his wife, who is an American
woman, having been warned a few minutes before the arrival of the troops, succeeded in escaping. General Huerfano, commander of the battalion of Colombia, when he learned
of the El Lapiz incident, repaired to
headquarters, where he found General
Cobos. According to current reports the latter ordered General Huerfano to remain in quarters. Exactly what has taken place is unknown, but it is said that Dr. Aristides Arjona, secretary
of the government; Fernando Arango,
chief of police, and Efraim Navia,
a member of the departmental superior
tribunal of justice, are under arrest,
the last named for trying to argue
his action.

Secretary Resists Arrest.

An attempt also is said to have been made to arrest Senor Guerra, secretary of finance, but he refused to accompany the officer who went to his house to arrest him, and when the officer returned with soldiers to effect
his capture Guerra had departed. The
Mayor Ossa. Governor Mutis spent
the night at the British consulate, but
in the American consulate.

United States Consul Gudge made
several unsuccessful attempts to secure an audience with General Cobos,
who is a brother of the minister of
war. It is reported that General Co-
bos offered the governorship to different Conservatives, who refused to accept, and that he himself will assume
civil command. It is said that Consul
Gudge attempted to send a cablegram
to Arthur M. Beaupre, the United States minister at Bogota, but that
the agent refused to accept the message, claiming that the lines were interrupted, in spite of the fact that it is known that press messages were
accepted.

It is thought that perhaps orders to refuse messages to Bogota have been issued to the cable company by the military authorities.

Government Held Responsible.

The national government in certain quarters is being held responsible for much of what has happened because
the soldiers have not been paid for some time and Governor Mutis declined to give more of the money of the department of Panama for national expenses, arguing that the central government owes the department
over $2,000,000, besides having obligated the department by a recent decree to pay the salaries of all civil national employees. The refusal of Governor Mutis is the origin of the discord between the civil and military authorities.

Violent articles written in El Lapiz
against what the Liberals call the assassination of General Victoriano Lorenzo, the leader of the guerrillas during the recent revolution, who was
cipitated events. The effect of what is now going on upon the Colombian
congress, it is believed, will be favorable to the canal treaty, for the enemies of the treaty, it is now believed,
will be easily convinced of the necessity of certain clauses which it contains in regard to the control of this zone.

Colon, Colombia, July 27.—This city
is perfectly quiet, as the coup on the part of General Cobos against Governor Mutis, of the department of Panama, is known only to a few here.
Developments are expected later.
General Luis Maria Gomez, governor
of this province, has been called to Panama and left in haste.

Go Prepared.

In preparing for your summer outing a little forethought may save you no end of
trouble. Mr. John H. Manly, a dry goods
merchant, of Belleville, R. I., while packing an outfit for camping a few weeks on Narragansett Bay, put in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for emergency use. The second day in camp
his little boy was taken with cramp colic.
The first dose of this remedy gave relief and
the second dose effected a cure. Think of the pain and suffering this boy would have had to endure without this remedy at hand
to relieve him. Such cases often result
fatally. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

TRAIN CREW KILLED ORDERS

And Four Lives Are Sacrificed in Collision on Chicago Great Western.

St. Paul, July 27.—Two trains met
in a head-on collision on the Chicago
Great Western railroad and four men were killed and about 25 or 30 passengers injured.

The dead: Charles Merkert, engineer of passenger train, Minneapolis;
H. Coser, fireman riding in passenger engine, but not on duty; H. Helman,
ton, Dodge Center, Minn., passenger.

Fred Horton, the passenger who was
in the vestibule of the front sleeper
talking to a friend, and was instantly
killed, while his friend escaped injury.

The two trains were the Twin City
limited and a fast freight. The limited
Oelwein, to Minneapolis. The second section consisted of an excursion train
running from Des Moines to Minneapolis and was three hours behind time.

The fast freight southbound received an order at Dodge Center reading
that the second section of the passenger train was three hours late and the crew evidently misread the order and
attempted to make Vlasaty siding, between Dodge Center and Hastings,
Minn., thinking that it was the limited
that was late. Meanwhile the limited
was pounding along at regular speed
and met the freight head-on just after the limited had rounded a curve at Vlasaty.

The baggage and buffet cars were completely wrecked and turned crosswise of the tracks. The first sleeper
back of the buffet was badly smashed
in the forward end and the four rear
cars remained intact on the track.

These cars were used to bring the dead and injured to St. Paul and Minneapolis, where the injured were given surgical attendance. None of the passengers were seriously injured but cuts
and bruises were freely distributed.

Interesting statistics are made public by the British Sanitary Institute, showing that since public health became a science at the beginning of the late queen's reign the average life of a man has been increased by three years and that of a woman by five years. Thirty years ago typhoid killed 374 people out of every million. Today, with an enormously increased population, it kills a bare 100 per million. Typhus, which 60 years ago struck down another 300 per million, has been literally stamped out by sanitation. Consumption has now fallen within the purview of sanitary authorities. During 1861 to 1865 death by consumption claimed 2,526 persons yearly out of every million living. Today a better acquaintance with the laws of health has cheated death of half the harvest of 1861 to 1865 from this disease. The same ratio would undoubtedly be found true of smallpox and other diseases that were once considered almost absolutely fatal. Medical science may waste time and effort in searching for the elixir of life, but its efforts in the directions of stamping out disease by encouraging sanitation and cleanliness are certainly bearing good fruit.

The ninety-three years of life of Pope Leo is another illustration of the fact that scholars, philosophers and professional men often live to extreme old age, with a fair enjoyment of all their faculties to the end. But who ever hear of a professional athlete living to the span often reached by these men of sedentary habits?

Bad examples are infectious. An Illinois town is now patterning after a Delaware community where mob law ruled. It is also getting the worst of it. Breaking the law to mete out justice is impolitic as well as unprofitable. Better to grease the machinery of the courts and run it a little faster.

Russia is said to have arranged with French capitalists for a loan of $26,000,000. This is a significant move and will do more to convince the world that Russia is getting ready for war over the Manchurian question than anything that has hitherto occurred.

The theory that cigarette smoking weakens the intellect seems to be strongly borne out in the case of those Pennsylvania boys who could not resist the habit even while they were riding on a powder wagon, and consequently blew up themselves and the load.

As long as ladies are insulted on the streets of East Liverpool in broad daylight public indignation will continue deep and strong against the city council which has voted to reduce the police force.

The pertinent query regarding the hospital sprung Saturday by a local contemporary will be found fully answered in the columns of the News Review of the same date.

There is a painful quiet along Broadway where Midway noises lately resounded, but the residents are not complaining.

It is not a good time to talk of reducing the police force. There are still thieves and hold-up men left in the city.

There are worse railroads than the C. & P. A train has arrived at a Texas town three years late.

Though Mr. Bryan has changed to the defensive, he cannot avoid being of fensive.

John H. Brannon.

John H. Brannon, one of the oldest and perhaps the very best known operative potter in East Liverpool, died at his home near the Thompson boulevard at 6 a. m. today, after a prolonged illness with consumption.

Mr. Brannon was born at Summitville, Franklin township, this county, 59 years ago, and has no living relatives except his wife and a step brother, Irene Darrah. He moved to East Liverpool 44 years ago and has been a resident of the city ever since. He learned the trade of kilnplaster and was engaged at that occupation until a few years ago when he was compelled to give up his work on account of the condition of his health.

John Brannon was one of the earliest and most active labor leaders the city ever knew. He, in company with George H. Owen, J. Q. A. Fowler and a few others, was instrumental in having organized the first assembly of the Knights of Labor ever instituted in East Liverpool in 1882. He followed the movement from that time until his retirement only a short time ago. Mr. Brannon was a member of the company that was organized to operate the Potters' Co-operative company now the Dresden. He suffered financial loss in this concern along with a large number of other operatives. Later he was identified with the Union company, which purchased the old Wyllie plant a few years ago.

Mr. Brannon was a member of the local Red Men, having filled all the important positions in the gift of the order. He was also a member of the Pocahontas degree of the order. He was a man of sterling integrity, numbered his friends by the score and was generous to a fault. The city has lost a good citizen and the cause of organized labor a true and loyal supporter.

Funeral services will be held from the late home Wednesday afternoon. Dr. David Jones, pastor of the M. P. church, officiating. Interment will be made at Riverview.

John Smith.

John Smith died at his home on Seventh street, Wellsview, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock and was buried this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. C. E. Clark, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, conducting the funeral services at the house. He was 65 years old and leaves a wife and three children. For the past 15 years his case has been a puzzle to physicians for the reason that his heart action was only half that of the average man. He was a strong man physically and until within a few days of his death had performed manual labor. Just what caused his heart's inertia has not been explained.

Mrs. Susan Long.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special).—Word was received here last evening of the death of Mrs. Susan Long yesterday afternoon at the Massillon asylum. She had been there about a year. She was 72 years old and had been a resident of Lisbon 15 years. Death was due to a general breaking down. The remains were brought here today. Four children survive her—Mrs. Mattie Thompson, of Cleveland; Mrs. Bert Graham, Mrs. Harvey Britton and Emmet Long, of Lisbon.

Michael Ian.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special).—Michael Ian, a coal miner aged 75, died suddenly at his home in Elkton last evening. Two brothers in Pennsylvania, his only known relatives, have been notified.

Miss Johnson guessed the name of "Bessie." The canary bird was won by W. P. Cooper, the lucky number being 53. The ladies realized a neat sum.

Hungarian Wife Seeks Divorce.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special).—Susie Korp, of Salem, through Attorneys Taylor & Baker, asks to be divorced from John Korp. She says they were married in Austria-Hungary in 1882 and have four children. She charges extreme cruelty, alleging that her husband has frequently used abusive language and has failed to provide for her. She also charges unfaithfulness on July 14 at Salem and on numerous other occasions.

CAR WRECKED

The Lives of the Crew And Four Passengers Were Endangered.

Car No. 17, Conductor T. M. Henderson and Motorman W. Nelson, was wrecked near the eastern terminal of the East Liverpool railway at 1:30 Sunday morning and the lives of the car crew and four passengers were endangered. Luckily all escaped with but a few minor bruises.

When within several hundred feet of the end of the line the car struck a gear box that had dropped off car No. 14. The front trucks passed over the obstruction, but the rear wheels were thrown from the track and the body of the car was thrown violently against the embankment. The escape of those on board is miraculous, as the car was running at a fast rate when the accident occurred.

The wrecking crew removed the car to the power house, where it will be repaired.

GOOSE-PASTURING

A Young Barber the Victim, Both Boys and Girls Taking Part in the Affair.

Officers Houser and Henthorne were called upon to investigate a peculiar case Saturday evening. It is alleged that a young barber of Main street was goosepastured on Saturday evening, a number of young men and women participating in the sport. The young man is said to have been stoned and otherwise roughly treated.

The officers succeeded in getting the names of all who took part in the affair and arrests are probable.

So He Shot Her and Then Killed Himself—Woman Will Recover.

Tonapah, Pa., July 27.—David McMains, a carpenter, residing at McKeesport, attempted to kill Mrs. Bessie Walton, aged 26, also of McKeesport. After shooting her through the cheek, knocking out several teeth, he turned the smoking weapon on himself and blew out his brains, dying on his way to the hospital. The woman will recover.

The shooting occurred at the home of Mrs. Walton's mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Walton. McMains followed the young woman here and tried to persuade her to get a divorce from her present husband and marry him, but she refused.

The coroner found a letter in McMains' pocket in which he warned "my single friends to stay away from women they cannot get, especially the married ones." He further says that Bessie was afraid her husband would kill her, and so both Bessie and he concluded to die. McMains was aged about 26 years and unmarried.

Another Attempted Assassination. Jackson, Ky., July 27.—There is much excitement here over an attempt to assassinate Riley Coldiron. Coldiron was with James Geer when two shots from ambush were heard, one of the bullets passing through Coldiron's clothing. Coldiron testified before the grand jury the past week that he saw Britton and Spicer with Curtis Jett at the time Jett is charged with killing Thomas Cockrill, and when Britton and Spicer were not indicted certain county officials attempted to have Coldiron indicted for perjury.

Boys Escape from House of Refuge

New York, July 27.—More than a score of youths of the House of Refuge on Randall's island tunneled under and through the thick wall surrounding the building and five succeeded in escaping. A dozen others who were discovered in the act of escaping submitted to arrest and seven who tried to get away were captured.

New York, July 27.—News of the sudden death in Butte, Mont., of former Congressman John M. Clancy, one of the most widely known Democratic politicians in Brooklyn, has reached his relatives. Mr. Clancy went west two weeks ago with Miss Annette Bacon, a niece.

Woman's Body Found in Sewer. Mount Vernon, N. Y., July 27.—With a shoe laced tied tightly around the neck the body of a woman was found in a sewer by a boy whose curiosity was aroused by coming upon a break in the sewer. The body was too large to have been forced through the break in the sewer, and must have been dropped into a manhole 300 feet away. The coroner said the woman had not been dead 24 hours.

Pleasure Boat Capsized. New London, Conn., July 27.—Mrs. C. T. Thorpe, Miss Annabel Rogers and Samuel Gohel were drowned in the Thames river by the capsizing of a pleasure boat while attempting to cross the river.

Newspaper Offices Flooded.

London, July 27.—Heavy rains Saturday night over the south of England caused serious floods and great damage in London. The underground railway was flooded and many printing rooms of London newspapers, built in the underground district between Fleet street and the Embankment, were flooded and unable to print Sunday editions until late in the afternoon. The heavy rains coincided with a high tide of the Thames, inundating several low-lying districts.

WELLSVILLE

No Saloons Were Open in Wellsville Yesterday—Strict Orders Issued.

This city enjoyed the unusual experience of being strictly dry yesterday and the greatest interest was manifested by those who were abstemious and had failed to provide themselves with a Sunday liquid supply on Saturday night. The East Liverpool contingent arriving here in the afternoon were amazed to find Wellsville "tighter" than their own prohibition city so far as obtaining intoxicants was concerned. In the pernacular there was nothing doing, and for the first Sunday in a long time all the saloons were really closed.

Mayor Fogo issued orders late Saturday night that the saloons must obey the law and close yesterday. Early Sunday morning Chief Houser made the rounds and found ten of them open and dispensing drinks over the bar to customers. The chief ordered them to clear and shut the places at once, the order being promptly obeyed.

Mayor Fogo does not propose to have this city a mecca for toppers on Sunday and is also trying to reduce the number of native Sunday drinkers.

CROASMUN DEAD

Exposure Hastened the Death of the Wellsville Invalid.

Grant Croasmun, who was rescued in a dying condition from uraemic poisoning from a sinking house boat, in which he lived, a few nights ago, died Saturday afternoon, the exposure incident to the rescue hastening death. His remains were taken to the home of his brother Will, Twentieth and Nevada streets, from which the funeral occurred this afternoon. Rev. L. F. Lavery, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, conducting the religious exercises.

Mr. Croasmun leaves a two-year-old son, one brother and one sister, the latter being Rachel Croasmun, matron at the Cleveland & Pittsburg passenger station here.

In a Fall Due to Heat Prostration. Farmer the Victim.

A. G. McPherson, residing on a farm three miles north of this city, was overcome by heat last Tuesday afternoon and fell from a load of hay in the field where he was harvesting. He was carried to the house and the usual restoratives applied. He rallied and then grew worse, but no physician was called until Sunday morning when Dr. A. L. Robinson, of this city, was sent for.

The doctor found the patient to be suffering from two broken ribs in addition to the effects of the sunstroke, and it is doubtful if he recovers.

CAUGHT TAKING POISON

A Wellsville Man Said to Have Attempted Suicide, But Was Prevented.

Horace Barton, of Nevada street, who is employed in the rolling mill, is reported to have taken a small dose of carbolic acid with suicidal intent on last Friday evening. He was caught in the act, and before swallowing enough to effect his desire, the poisonous fluid was taken from him.

It is said that financial troubles caused the action.

Drunk and Quarrelsome.

Improving the School House.

The township school board of Liverpool township are making some extensive improvements on the old school building at Walker and the surrounding ground and even now the place looks entirely different. The school building has been painted, both inside and out, the building is to be entirely renovated and the grounds placed in better shape. A new path for the scholars has been made, leading from the building to the road on the hill.

Broken Rail Caused Wreck.

A freight wreck occurred at Freeman, on the river division, early Sunday morning in which several freight cars were derailed. The wreck is said to have been caused by a broken rail. The wreck train was called out, and after a couple of hour's time, replaced the derailed cars on the track again. No one was injured and but little damage was done with the exception of tying up the road and delaying traffic.

A FLESH-FORMING FOOD

If Mi-o-na Does Not Build Up Good, Healthy Flesh Will Reel Will Return Your Money.

Of all the remedies in Will Reed's popular drug store, there are very few he is willing to sell with a guarantee to refund the money if they do not give satisfaction.

Mi-o-na, the famous flesh-forming food and cure for stomach troubles, has done such wonders among his customers that he is now advertising. "If Mi-o-na does not give a noticeable gain in weight, if it fails to cure indigestion and all stomach troubles, come back to my store and get your money."

Anyone who has been losing flesh or who has always been too thin, should use Mi-o-na. Thinness and emaciation are signs that the food is not properly assimilated and that you do not get the nourishment you should.

Mi-o-na mingles with the food you eat, aids its assimilation, tones up and strengthens the digestive organs, and puts the whole system in proper physical condition; it saves the digestive organs from exhaustive work. By its use the elements needed to put flesh on your bones will be selected from the food, and each day will show a noticeable gain in weight.

Commence the use of Mi-o-na today at Will Reed's risk. If it increases your weight and cures you of indigestion, it will cost you 50 cents, if it does not, Will Reed will pay for the treatment himself and return your money.

SOUTH SIDE

MANY ATTRACTIONS

Of High Character Will Hold the Boards at Rock Springs Park Theater.

The attendance at the presentation of the Passion Play at Rock Springs park theater last night was very large. The people of this city appreciate a good entertainment and Prof. McKenzie's production was more than satisfactory.

Manager McCollum has selected the artists for this week's stand at the theater with special care, and the patronage will undoubtedly be all that can be desired. The vaudeville bill is headed by Maxwell & Dudley, the singing comedians. These artists have traveled the best circuits in the country and are sure to please. Their sketch, "The Singing Lesson," is one of the best and most novel on the vaudeville stage.

Master Lonnie Follet, the child artist with the aggregation, has pleased audiences all over the country and is very clever.

George Yoceman is a German comedian of rare ability and as a jester has no superior.

Gourley Bros., who are not connected with the local celebrities by the same name, do an acrobatic turn which has earned the highest praise from the most eminent critics.

"Fun at Grigg's Corners" is a sketch originated and performed by Henderson & Ross, who have been so well received everywhere that their tour amounts to actual sensation.

Matinees will be given Monday, Tuesday, Friday and Saturday afternoons at 3 p. m.

Maxwell, the comedian, who does the clever turn with Dudley, is not J. H. Maxwell, the genial manager of the park, as many have been led to believe. J. Howard is not an actor, and has no ambition in that line. He can't act a lick and don't profess to know anything about the business. This statement is made in the hope that the patronage at the theater this week will not be lessened on account of the misunderstanding.

The program for the week at the park is as follows:
Tuesday—Lady Workers, Scio college, Scio.
Wednesday—Sharpsburg M. E. Sunday school, Sharpsburg, Pa.
Thursday—Millvale M. E. Sunday school, Millvale, Pa.
Friday—Panhandle division (Columbus to Pittsburg) picnic.

CRUP PROSPECTS

In West Virginia Are Fair—Fruit Poor. Plenty of Chestnuts.

It is said that there never was such a prospect for chestnuts in the collection of the oldest citizens of Hancock county. As far as the timber can be seen young chestnuts loom up prominently and the tops of the trees seem to topple over under their weight.

The grass and oats and corn crop will be splendid, but the apple crop and the prospect for fruit is not so good.

Many states depend yearly upon West Virginia for their supply of winter chestnuts, and the fruit raised in this state is shipped to all the larger cities in the United States. After the first effective frost the shipment will be begun.

VALUABLE DOGS

ANIMALS WERE THE PROPERTY OF THE CITY SOLICITOR.

The Deed Evidently Malicious, Though a Farmer Says They Were Chasing Sheep.

Two valuable dogs, the property of City Solicitor George E. Davidson, were shot last Friday morning near the Fernwood camp, and it is said the circumstances surrounding the occurrence are absolutely without precedent. The details are so revolting and the motives of the perpetrator evidently malicious.

A large party of young men had established headquarters at Fernwood, and had been engaged in fishing and hunting for several days. When they left the city two days ago, "Rod" and "Trip" were taken along. It had been the custom of those in charge to lock the dogs in the house during the night and each morning they were released for a run. On Friday morning the dogs were untied as usual and had not been absent from the camp long when "Trip" came running into the enclosure and it was immediately discovered that she had been shot. Sixteen slugs were found in the dog's body and the party began a search for the other dog.

The neighborhood was scoured in every direction, but no trace of the missing animal could be found. Late in the evening Captain W. M. Hill and several others located the carcass, which had been secreted in a dense thicket concealed on every side by thick underbrush.

The family of John Montgomery, who had insisted they had not seen the dogs, being confronted, confessed to having been thoroughly posted with the circumstances surrounding the shooting.

John Montgomery stated the dogs had been running his sheep, and he had shot them. He said he and his farm hand, Henry Bentley, had discovered the dogs running about among the sheep. Bentley went to the house and secured the dog. Returning he shot one of the dogs, and while his employer was examining the wound the other animal approached. Montgomery captured "Rod" and he was tied to a stake. Meantime the other dog had regained consciousness and ran to camp. Montgomery proceeded to his home, reloaded the gun and returned to where the dog had been tied, deliberately and maliciously shot him through the heart.

Mr. Davidson and the other members of the camping party insist that the dogs had not and would not run after sheep and are justly indignant. The owner had refused $100 for "Rod" only a few days before the brutal killing.

when the matter was put to a vote. Zimmerman has the endorsement and will select his own delegates. Thomas is probably the most rabid Bryan man in Ohio. Tom Johnson's plans have been laid bare to the world. He was successful in keeping them under cover for a long time, but someone gave things away after that conference held at his home last Wednesday and now it is patent to all that he wants the nomination for governor.

Governor Nash was expected home from his lake trip on Monday, but Saturday evening he wired that he would not return before Thursday. This is another disappointment to the friends and relatives of James Ryan, the Salem man who is hopelessly ill with tuberculosis in the hospital ward at the penitentiary, who are working to secure a pardon for him. They have no doubt but that the governor would pardon him at once if he were here.

GRAUSTARK

We have a good one for our readers now—GRAUSTARK, THE STORY OF A LOVE BEHIND A THRONE, BY GEORGE BARR MCCUTCHEON.

Marie Bankhead Owen, reviewing the story in the Bookworm, says: A practical bookman has just said, "no book since Tribby has taken so great a hold on the popular fancy as Graustark."

Being a story of love behind a throne, it teems with scenes of adventure and impassioned romance.

The author, George Barr McCutcheon, himself an American, has given the reader a noble example of an ideal American as hero.

The plot is thrilling and well sustained, the story being told in vivid, terse English.

The motive of the story is the love of a man and a woman, and what that love emboldens them to venture, to dare, to renounce, to endure!

It is beyond the province of the reviewer to reduce the plot of a masterpiece of fiction to a compressed summary of the story. A zealous story reader delights in the discovery of what happened next as well as to revel in the style and the literary atmosphere.

I would as soon be given a glass of skimmed milk or a squeezed lemon as a book of fiction accompanied with a synopsis of its contents. Graustark I leave therefore to the pleasure of the prospective reader.

THIS STORY STARTS TODAY. DON'T FAIL TO READ THE OPENING CHAPTER ON PAGE 7.

STRUCK BY A BICYCLE

An Aged Man Knocked Down and Badly Hurt at Lisbon.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special)—James Sterling, an aged house painter, was knocked down by a bicycle ridden by Walter Cope, about noon Saturday, and severely injured. He was unconscious for a while, but is now getting on all right.

Mr. Cope is employed by the Columbiana County Telephone company. He was hurrying down the street, and while his attention was momentarily attracted in another direction, he stepped off the curb and started across the street. The old man is blind of one eye, and did not see the bicyclist until he was hit. Mr. Cope was also somewhat bruised.

to council for the privilege of having the street paved and promised to pay for it by assessment. They have received their assessment but up to date none have paid. Why they have steadfastly refused to turn over the money is not known, but it is the opinion of a few that they were angered because the board of public service stopped the paving before it reached the point designated by the petitioners in their original request. They wanted it paved from Walnut street to the intersection of Pennsylvania avenue. It was stopped on the west side of the avenue several hundred feet.

If the board accepts the bill and orders it paid council will very likely make provisions for the money tomorrow evening.

HOUR SELLING TO BE AIDED.

Three Men Summoned—Officers, Mistaken for Burglars, Narrowly Escape Being Shot.

Three saloonists are to appear before the mayor some time today to answer to charges preferred against them by Special Officer Todd, who served on the police department last week. The charges were preferred against the trio this morning and each has been notified to appear. They are T. O. Carman Ole Olson and James Walters.

Carman and Olson are charged with selling and keeping open after hours. Each will fight his case bitterly. It is thought that as a result of their arrest the validity of the club room law will be given a severe test. Both men have rooms over their saloons that are elegantly furnished and are said to be occupied by clubs, to which charters have been granted by the secretary of state and the saloonists contend that they have a lawful right to allow members of the club to congregate in the rooms at any time.

The affidavits designate the time of the alleged violations as Friday night. Neither saloon was entered by the officer. He charges that he saw Olson open a bottle of beer and heard incriminating noise. Todd called upon the entire night crew of officers to assist him in gaining entrance. They attempted to force an entrance in numerous ways, but were unsuccessful. Todd came near being killed as a result of his investigation. He was wandering around on the roof of a house next door to the saloon, when the occupant, Billy Humble, thinking him to be a burglar, went in search of a gun to dispatch the prowler. Failing to find the weapon Todd was allowed to escape.

Todd and Morris will appear against Carman. They allege that they saw the proprietor in the back room of the saloon.

Walters is charged with violating the screen ordinance. Officer Todd alleges that the violation was committed on both Friday and Saturday mornings.

TWO FRANCHISES HAVE BEEN GRANTED

C. A. SMITH AND NEWELL SYNDICATE GET THEM.

Applications for Southside Street Railway Franchises Favorably Acted Upon By Hancock County Court.

The syndicate, owning the Newell tract in Hancock county, a mile west of Chester, was granted a franchise by the county court at New Cumberland today to build, operate and maintain an electric railway from Chester to Congo. The court considered the application all the morning and until late this afternoon before giving the syndicate the right applied for.

A petition signed by 500 prominent people of Hancock county was presented to the court in favor of the franchise. The exact route to be followed by the company could not be learned this afternoon.

As a result of the court's decision there are two companies now in possession of a franchise to run a line between the two points, C. A. Smith and others having been granted a franchise about a month ago.

A WIFE FATALLY SHOT BY DRUNKEN HUSBAND

The Latter a Fugitive From Justice, Declaring He Will Not Be Taken Alive.

TERRIBLE SUNDAY TRAGEDY AT SEBRING

Sebring, July 27.—(Special).—After participating in a drunken debauch in Alliance, Mr. and Mrs. William Jackson returned to this town Saturday evening and later in the night got into an altercation which resulted in Mrs. Jackson being fatally shot with a revolver in the hands of her husband. The crime has caused the wildest excitement not only in Sebring, but in the entire neighborhood.

Jackson, who escaped from the scene of the crime, has been hunted by a posse and his capture is only a question of a few hours. It is not feared that Jackson will suffer violence at the hands of his pursuers if caught, owing to the circumstances surrounding the affair. He has been hiding in the woods but yesterday morning he appeared at the home of Ralph Urmston, of Beloit, by whom he had been employed, and demanded breakfast.

He told Urmston that he had committed the deed and expressed himself as well pleased over it. He claimed that the posse had been almost upon him several times during Sunday but that he had managed to keep from being taken. "They will never take me alive," he exclaimed defiantly as he left Urmston's house and disappeared into the woods. Urmston at once telephoned for the police and in a few minutes an additional posse had been formed to run the murderer down. A report received here late this afternoon was to the effect that he was surrounded and that his capture would be effected before night. Great precaution is being taken to avoid any of the posse being injured at his hands.

Jackson and his wife are former residents of Salem and until five days ago

YALE GRADUATE IN POLICE COURT

Capital and Labor Both Represented in the Line-up Before the Mayor.

THE OLD STORY REPEATED

Capital and labor were well represented in the lineup that appeared before Mayor Weaver this morning. Of the seven victims gathered into the police net over Sunday, one professed to have spent nearly a quarter of a million dollars.

Dr. Crosby, manager of the hoochecoonce show, one of the attractions that the carnival company was not allowed to display in this city, was the onetime money man. He was arrested by Officer Woods for being drunk and disorderly. When arraigned before the mayor he told an interesting story of his life and as a result got off with a small fine. In appearance Dr. Crosby is all that he professed. He has the marks of a cultured and educated man, but they are, however, interlined with the never-deceiving lines of dissipation. The latter he accredits to the cocaine and booze habit. "I graduated from Yale ten years ago," said Crosby, "and I was at the head of my class. My father died a short time after and by his will I received over $100,000. For a while I lived like a prince, threw money at the birds and was looked upon by everybody as a good fellow, but I finally acquired the cocaine habit and it, together with booze, landed me in this very undesirable position."

John Miller and L. Carrahan were taken into custody yesterday morning by Officers Spence and Wilson, of the East End. Miller is a lather by trade and hails from New York. Carrahan is a local man, depending on a pottery for a livelihood. Both of them were staggering on the railroad track when arrested. Miller had a couple of dollars and upon his promise to get out of the city he was discharged. Carrahan said he only drank three bottles of beer and was not drunk. The mayor said he thought that much of the "vile stuff" would make any ordinary man drunk and told the fellow to appear tomorrow evening when the arresting officer will testify against him.

James Kelly and Charles McGinley, iron workers of Pittsburg, who have been employed at Wellsville, were corralled by Officer Saulsberry late Saturday afternoon. The officer charged them with being drunk and insulting a female. Together they were able to raise $6.10 and the mayor allowed them to depart. They announced that no pair in the country could best them in handling a ladle but were not so positive of their ability to store booze.

TRIED TO CROSS AHEAD OF A CAR

Foolhardy Action of Driver Came Near Resulting in Two Deaths.

The silly and unexplained actions of two of the Duke brothers Saturday evening came near resulting in the serious injury to a car load of passengers on a Pleasant Heights car, and that one or both of the Dukes were not killed is due to the prompt action of Motorman Byers, who was in charge of the car.

The brothers left the Diamond with a team and road wagon on West Market street about the same time the car departed, and whipping up the horses kept a little ahead of the car as far as the Horn switch, when, without any apparent reason, the driver pulled the team directly across the track and a collision was inevitable.

Motorman Byers applied the electrical brake but the car was too close and smashed into the outfit with considerable force. The car struck the front portion of the wagon and the lead horse, knocking the whole outfit clear across the track and demolishing one of the wheels of the wagon. The horses luckily escaped any injury, and though the Dukes indulged in some strong language which was unheeded by the crew in charge of the car, Motorman Byers and Conductor Barnett were in no way responsible for the accident.

BILL FOR PAVING WALNUT STREET

THE REASON FOR DELAY

Among numerous matters of importance to be acted upon by the board of public service at its regular meeting to be held this evening is the question pertaining to the payment of the cost incident to the paving of Robinson street. It will be remembered that the board referred the question to council, arguing that that body alone had the power to dispose of it.

City Auditor Davidson and President of Council Horwell, in conference this afternoon, came to the decision that the board of public service must first order the bill to be paid and then it will be up to council to pass an appropriation ordinance to secure the money. President Horwell will meet with the board this evening and recommend that such action be taken.

The money, about $4,000, for the paving of the street in question, is due John Ryan, the contractor. When he took the contract it was with the understanding that he be paid in full just as soon as the work was completed. It has now been at least ten months since the last brick was laid and Mr. Ryan has certainly a right to demand his money.

Auditor Davidson states that Mr. Ryan would have received his money long ere this had those persons whose property abuts on the improved street done as they agreed. They applied

GUARD CAMP IS NO HOLIDAY

Soldiers Who Go to Newark Next Month Will Be There For Business.

BIG LOT OF SUPPLIES

Will Be Required to Feed Ohio's Militiamen on the Field—Zimmerman Gains a Victory in His First Fight. Capital Notes.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, July 27.—The important duty of providing the food supplies for the 6,000 Ohio Guardsmen who will camp at Newark August 17 to 25 will devolve upon Lieutenant Colonel Harry Freese, of Canton, chief commissary on the staff of Major General Charles Dick, division commander of the Ohio National Guard, and widely known in Columbiana county, where much of his time has been spent during the past five years as agent of the B. & O. Railroad company. It is estimated that it will cost $17,000 to feed the Guards and that the total expenses of the encampment will foot up to $75,000. It will be a division encampment and will be conducted along regular army lines.

Some encampments in the past were much like a summer outing for the soldiers and led many to anticipate these annual gatherings as occasions for recreation and mere pleasure. In recent years this impression has been dissipated. Each year brings these encampments more in conformity with regular army regulations and the passage of the Dick military law by the last congress placing the National Guards of the states under the jurisdiction of the president and on a footing like that of the regular army means that the lines will be more closely drawn this year than heretofore.

The troops will be sheltered in 2,000 tents. The state camp grounds at Newark are suitable in all respects for gatherings of the military and are now being prepared for its reception. The rations which will be served the soldiers will consist of fresh beef, bacon, ham, fish, bread, crackers, beans, rice, cabbage, potatoes, onions, coffee, sugar, salt, pepper, vinegar, pickles, apples, jam, butter and eggs. It is estimated that soldiers will consume 23 tons of bread, 3 tons of sugar, two tons of coffee and 25 tons of potatoes and other vegetables.

John L. Zimmerman, of Springfield, has come off victorious in his first skirmish for the Democratic nomination for governor. W. S. Thomas, of Kenton, a radical Bryan and Johnson adherent, and a bitter personal and political foe of Zimmerman, has been trying to make trouble for the latter in his county—Clark, which held its convention Saturday. State interest centered in it. Zimmerman asked the convention to endorse him and to give him authority to name his delegates to the state convention. Thomas kicked against this, realizing if he were allowed he would stand no show of going to the convention as a delegate, but he was overwhelmingly defeated

Of the Eleven Men Engaged in Unloading Not One Escaped Injury.

Foreman Jeff Crawford and 10 Italian laborers had narrow escapes from death at 1:30 today and all received injuries which will lay them up for some time to come.

The gang was engaged in unloading steel rails from a flat car on the C. & P. tracks near the Thompson pottery. The car had been placed as near the tracks of the East Liverpool railway as possible in order to load the rails onto cars to be transported to the Beaver Creek extension of the street railway company. The men had partially completed the task and had removed all the rails from the side of the flat car next the river. The weight became so unequal on that side that the bed of the car turned over, leaving the trucks in place on the tracks.

Every one in the crew, 11 in number, was pitched with great force clear across the street railway tracks and over the river bank 30 feet below. Perhaps 20 of the steel rails were thrown out with the men, who were all more or less injured. Crawford alighted at the bottom of the bank against a gas pipe and sustained severe bruises to his right arm.

Carmel Le Presto and Nicolotti, two of the Italians, were behind the other members of the gang and did not strike the ground until the rails had begun to tumble. La Presto received a contusion of the skull and his right hip was badly bruised. He is suffering considerable pain and internal injuries may develop. Sotiere was hit on the right ankle by a rail and it was badly sprained.

The patrol took the men to city hall, where Dr. Ogden looked after their injuries. They were later taken to their homes in the shanty boat district.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special).—Anna E. Burson, of Middleton township, unable to live happily with her husband, George H. Burson, has left him and has petitioned the court to decree her temporary alimony pending a hearing, and permanent alimony after the testimony has been presented to the court. The defendant has been enjoined from disposing of a farm of 65 acres in Middleton township or any part of his personal property.

In her petition the plaintiff says they were married September 6, 1895, at Chillicothe, O., and have two children, Harry, aged 6, and Grace, aged 3 years. Mrs. Burson charges habitual drunkenness and extreme cruelty, alleging that her husband has frequently struck her, and threatened to take her children away from her.

If no improvement is noted within a few days, Mr. By will go to her. Mrs. By has been in ill health for some time and went west in the hope of being benefited.

A NARROW ESCAPE FOR FIVE PERSONS

Harrison Family Thrown From a Surrey in a Serious Runaway.

COLLISION WITH A RIG

William Harrison, wife and three little daughters had miraculous escapes from a horrible death on Avondale street at about 9 o'clock Saturday evening.

The Harrison family resides at Gardendale. Mr. Harrison drives a surrey and on Saturday evening came to the city accompanied by his wife and three children. Their shopping completed the party drove to the confectionery of C. A. Fowler on lower Avondale street, where they pulled up to the curb and were conversing with some one on the pavement. Suddenly the noise of a runaway was heard and down the hill at a breakneck speed came a horse attached to a runaway. The Harrisons had scarcely time to turn their heads in the direction from whence the sound came when the runaway struck their outfit with a terrific crash. Women screamed and there was the sound of breaking buggy iron and woodwork, while the horse was struggling and tearing to release itself from the tangled harness.

The Harrisons were all thrown out of their vehicle and the surrey was smashed to pieces. Mr. Harrison received a cut under one of his eyes caused by coming in contact with the pavement. Mrs. Harrison was badly bruised about the body, while the three little girls were terribly bruised about the head and body. Little Esther Harrison was pitched over the dashboard of the surrey and was rendered unconscious by the fall. It was some time before she recovered, and then it was necessary for the bystanders to assist her to rise.

The entire party were suffering great pain from their injuries and had to be assisted to their home in Gardendale. Yesterday it was found that Esther was more severely injured than was at first supposed and she is unable to walk.

The runaway horse was the property of T. J. Andrews, of the East End, and was being driven by Roy Colclough, who had been driving with Miss Myrtle Andrews. The animal was a spirited one, and became frightened at an automobile near the McKinnon home at the top of the hill. So frantic did the horse become that it kicked itself free from the buggy. The occupants were thrown out and severely injured, Miss Andrews losing a diamond ring valued at $200.

East Liverpool Case Appealed.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special).—The case of Ralph Paisley versus V. H. Ford & Co. has been appealed from the court of Justice H. P. McCarron, in East Liverpool, where the plaintiff got judgment by default for $650. The amount is claimed due for labor.

STARTED TO LEAVE HOME WITH THE SHOW PEOPLE BUT WAS STERNLY STOPPED

A Rochester Policeman Brought Back an East Liverpool Young Lady Fascinated With Carnival Life.

Miss Fern, the pretty 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Sadie Anderson, who runs a boarding house on Market street, was sadly disappointed last evening when she was intercepted at Rochester while riding on an east bound passenger train in company with one of the artists of the carnival company, her desired destination being Salem, where the company is holding forth this week. It was the intention of the girl to travel with the company as a ticket seller.

Miss Anderson, like many other young girls of the city, attended the show every day last week. There was something very fascinating about the life to her and when one of the "speelers" kindly asked her if she would not like to be a show girl it did not take her long to decide that such a life would be preferable to the quiet, uneventful hours that she passes in the Crockery City. The more she thought of the proposition the more she liked the idea and during yesterday she determined to have the fancy she had fostered for years realized and accepted the invitation.

Arrangements were made by the daring young miss and together with the person who had told her only of the bright side of the life she boarded the 6:10 train for Salem. Her plans would have worked admirably but for a boarder at her mother's home, who saw her step on the train and feeling suspicious, informed Mrs. Anderson. The latter rushed to central police station immediately and appealed to Officer Dawson for help. She asked that an officer at Rochester be telephoned to arrest her daughter. Dawson did as requested and in a very short time a Rochester policeman telephoned that he had the girl and wanted to know what he should do with her. Mrs. Anderson agreed to pay his expenses if he would accompany the girl home and in less than two hours from the time she left the city she was back under the roof of her mother.

BRIDE OF A YEAR SEEKS DIVORCE

KATIE ROHRBACH, OF THIS CITY, TELLS A SAD STORY.

First Month of Their Married Life Husband Spent Much Time With Other Women.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special).—Katie Rohrbach, of East Liverpool, asks legal separation from Talp Rohrbach and that her maiden name be restored. She says they were married a year ago March 21 and have no children. Mrs. Rohrbach says they took up their residence at the home of his parents in East Liverpool, but lived together but little more than a month, when she was compelled to leave him on account of his inhuman conduct toward her.

She alleges that he kept company with single women, took them skiff riding on the Ohio river, stayed out late at night and attended dances with them and was absent from her nearly all the time. To her entreaties he told her that if his conduct did not please her, she could leave him, which culminated in their separation about April 30, 1902. She charges that he has failed to support her and accuses him of unfaithfulness, naming Rosie Macshall as correspondent. H. E. Grosshans is her attorney.

ENTHUSIASM IS AT HIGH PITCH

As the End of the Contest, Draws Near the Interest Is Intense.

HOW THE VOTE STANDS

A large batch of coupons were brought into the office Saturday and though they were added to the respective candidates in their order, the standing of the three leaders was not changed.

"I am not a sporting man," said a friend of one of the candidates, but I would give a good round sum to know who is going to win those prizes. My man is good and strong and will surely win one of the coveted places. I have never been interested in a contest that there was more excitement manifested and it is doubtful if there is a single News Review subscriber who is not saving coupons for some of the candidates."

No higher compliment can be paid to an individual than has been noted in the large number of votes cast for the several leaders in the great popularity contest.

From now until Friday evening at 6 o'clock the interest will be intense, and the hustle for votes will be continued until the very last meeting. The News Review would urge upon all who are collecting coupons that they be brought in promptly in order that there may be no delay in arriving at a decision when the last issue has been circulated.

WITH THE WORKMEN IN THE CLAY PLANTS

ENGLISH CONDITIONS.

In the Staffordshire potteries, employment shows some improvement, although few factories have worked full time. The hollow ware pressers report employment as moderate; the printers and transferers as good, the ovenmen as moderate; the throwers and turners report employment as slack in the electrical branch. In the Glasgow and Portobello district employment is reported as continuing fair, but as worse than a year ago. The white hollow ware potters' trade union in the Glasgow district reports its members as all working short time.

Information has been received from 10 employers' association, 10 trade unions, with 5,042 members, local correspondents and employers, says the Labor Gazette, an English publication, and the reports are to the effect that employment in the glass trade continues bad in the bottle making branch in many centers. In other branches it continues dull generally.

Employment with glass bottle makers in the north of England also continues bad, and is worse than a year ago. In St. Helens and Newton-le-Willows district it is fairly good and is better than a year ago. In the West Riding of Yorkshire employment shows little change, and continues bad. In the Glasgow, Alloa and Portobello district employment is reported bad, and worse than a year ago. In Dublin it is reported as fair.

In London, glassblowers report employment bad, and worse than a year ago. In Birmingham flint glass makers report it as bad; flint glass cutters as very quiet; plate glass bevelers and silverers as fair. At West Bromwich employment continues moderate. Employment in all branches of the flint trade is slack at Wordsley, Stourbridge and Birtley. At St. Helens sheet glass flatteners report employment as good; the decorative glass workers as very fair.

With pressed glass makers at Gateshead it has improved, but a large number are still unemployed. In the Glasgow district the flint glass makers and pressed glass makers' trade unions report all their members as working short time. In Edinburgh the glass makers report employment as dull, and worse than a year ago; the glass cutters as good.

NEW YORK NOTES.

General stagnation prevails in the crockery line at present, as far as business is concerned, but these conditions generally prevail at this season. At the potteries in Trenton and its vicinity the activity is confined to general repairing of the machinery and workshops and the preparation of new samples for the traveling men. The western potteries are also quiet just now, but they are said to have the best of the opening of the fall trade.

It is generally believed that the buyers who will look over the samples in a few weeks will purchase with less caution than they did last spring, when the trade was less familiar with the rebate system. In fact, a heavy fall trade is looked forward to.

While business in the local ware-rooms is rather quiet, the mail order department is said to foot up a fair volume. A few of the southern buyers are now in town, but they have not yet started in to order extensively. It is the general opinion that there will be an influx of buyers next month.

As there is no particular reason for placing large orders for domestic crockery in advance the demand for this variety is rather light. The movement of foreign goods has also been light, but this is generally expected at this season.

DOS PASSOS' BOOK.

John R. Dos Passos, best known in this city as the man who tried hard to start a pottery trust and failed, has now become an author. Of his work the New York Times says: "The argument in the book of John R. Dos Passos, 'The Anglo-Saxon Century,' in favor of the unification of the English speaking people, to work for civilization and peace, and 'the benefit of mankind' rather gains than loses in force from the fact that its author is an American citizen of Portuguese descent. His scheme for the establishment of a dominant Anglo-Saxon empire may not seem to all his readers one that they would most care to have realized, but his book is based on a popular idea, while his treatment of the subject is both ingenious and thoughtful, and he invariably imparts to a sympathetic reader some of his own enthusiasm."

Says She Killed Man Near Salt Lake City While Defending Her Honor. Story Confirmed.

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 27.—A young woman giving the name of Mrs. Aurora Hodge, age 19, of Denison, Ia., entered the office of Superintendent of Police Carr and said she wanted to give herself up, declaring that she had killed a man near Salt Lake City on July 11. She said she had parted from her husband a few months after their marriage and went on the road with a traveling medicine vender as his bookkeeper.

"When on a lonely road near Salt Lake City, July 11," the woman said, "I attempted to assault me and I shot him with a revolver I had been carrying. I left him in the wagon and went to Salt Lake City to give myself up, but my nerve failed me and I took a train for Denison. I told my brother, and when he went to tell the authorities I fled to Chicago. There I secured a position as waitress in a Spring Lake (Mich.) hotel, but could not rest with it on my mind, and so I came to Grand Rapids to give myself up."

A telegram from Acting Chief of Police Burbridge, of Salt Lake City, confirms Mrs. Hodge's story, states that there was a warrant for her arrest for murder, and asks that she be held for the Salt Lake City authorities.

Lively Church Meeting.

Camak, Ga., July 27.—Two killed and six wounded, four of them fatally, is the result of a row at a negro church in which pistols and razors played a deadly part. The entire negro population of the town is terrorized and it is impossible to learn the real cause of the trouble. The shooting started over a dispute of some sort. There was a wild rush to get from the building and it is believed that many of the wounded were hurt in this attempt. Women and children were trampled under foot by men, who with knives and pistols in their hands were trying to escape foes armed in the same manner.

Detective Incurs Villagers' Enmity.

Scranton, Pa., July 27.—An attempt to lynch John Peel, a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad detective, was made at Foster by a crowd of villagers, who were infuriated upon learning that he had gained evidence which would connect a score of families of the village with wholesale thievery of brass and other junk from the company's property.

SERMONS OF FAITH IN LOCAL PULPITS

Rev. Mr. Swearingen, of Lincoln, Neb., Preached For Presbyterians.

TWO ABLE DISCOURSES

"I Know Thy Works" the Text of Dr. Jones at the M. P. Church—Other Eloquent And Impressive Services Yesterday.

Rev. Mr. Swearingen, of Lincoln, Neb., who occupied the First Presbyterian church pulpit yesterday, preached two strong and able sermons. In the morning he preached from Hebrews xii:2, "Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God."

He said this was a sermon of faith, but he could as well talk on the subject of discouragement. The Hebrews were losing, they had not already lost faith, and this appeal of the great writer showed them their shortcomings as well as pointed out the way of salvation. The sermon showed the power of God to bring back the people if they will but have faith, and argued that while there may be discouragements they can all be swept away by the sweet abiding faith which all can have.

Rev. Mr. Swearingen last evening took for his subject the "Fitness of the Inspiration of Life." His text was part of Galatians vi:15, "But God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ." It was a sermon of promise and gladness and worth to the Christian who faltered for a moment, but catching the inspiration of the promise humbly, although fervently placed all at the feet of the Savior.

TRUE ECCENTRICITY

Its Place in Christian Work—Sermon By Rev. Dr. M. B. Pratt.

The services at the First M. E. church last evening were marked by an unusually excellent musical program and a strong sermon by the pastor, Rev. Dr. M. B. Pratt. Dr. Pratt's subject was "The True Eccentricity, or a Singular Life." He contrasted the development of the Christian religion in those years when the pendulum was swinging backward and forward, first towards the monastery times with a tendency toward the aesthetic life, and told how in later years the pendulum swung in the opposite direction, which was typified by events in the age of Cromwell. He described how many different religious sects originated under the banner of Christianity and expressed the opinion that true eccentricity did not consist of wearing regulation regalia, nor in monastic life, nor in military array, nor soldiers' uniform. He spoke of a moral unlikeliness to the world.

Men were induced by human events to take charge of the moral movements for the evangelization of the world, and commended their work. The speaker told of men rising against the reeking filth which infests communities, and urged all Christian men to help to clean up such spots of sin and iniquity as are to be found in nearly every community, not excepting this city. He urged all men to have God and the gospels. He urged all to cast aside expediency from time to time and become a united Christian power, by standing firmly together for the right. Just political power is secured by united effort. Christian warriors should not waste their ammunition and time fighting grasshoppers when there were lions lurking around the edge of the fields. The speaker closed with the hope that God would make all men's peculiarities rest on themselves, externally and internally.

I KNOW THY WORKS

Forcible Application of a Text Relating to Asian Churches Made By Dr. Jones.

"I Know Thy Works" (Rev. ii:2) was the text from which Rev. Dr. David Jones, of the First M. P. church, preached yesterday morning. The speaker explained that the seven churches of Asia were probably organized by John, who according to tradition, outlived all the other apostles and died what is called a natural death. While he was on the island of Patmos God commanded him to write a letter to the seven churches of Asia. Each of the letters began with the same introductory, "I know thy works." In each letter God commends, warns and promises.

Of the seven churches God finds but one wholly good, four good and Laodiceans bad, but permitted it to exist five

centuries in the hope that it would repent and then was so completely swept from the face of the earth that at this time not a vestige or evidence of its site remains.

Pointed applications were made of this sentence, and the thought was brought out forcibly that there are many Christians who have forsaken their first love, and that God would have "somewhat against them."

"God does not say because you have ceased to become a Christian of rare excellence you have ceased to become a Christian at all. God's judgment comes a little slow some times, but it comes with feet shod with wool."

WHITHER GOEST THOU?

A Query Which Christians Of All Ages Have Found Most Pertinent.

"Whither Goest Thou?" was the theme of Rev. E. Lamb, of St. Mary's church, Pittsburgh, who preached at St. Stephen's Episcopal church last evening. The speaker forcibly made the words to apply to the world and the people of today and he said that the query has been asked of all Christian people in all ages. The disciples could not realize how the departure of the Lord from their midst could benefit them, but they were told that they could follow when the time came and join him in the new world.

The speaker then told of the Christianity of the different centuries and how it was beheld by the people. He closed his remarks by exhorting his

Wherever there is no taint of incurable disease in the blood to complicate the case, Dr. Howard's Specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia will cure those diseases.

To induce the people of East Liverpool and other neighboring towns to try this wonderful remedy, it is making a special introductory offer of a regular 50 cent bottle, containing sixty doses, at half price, 25 cents. And with every bottle goes its guarantee to refund the money if the remedy does not cure.

Dr. Howard's Specific is not a "cure all." But it is the one remedy you need if you suffer with constipation, indigestion, headaches or any disorder of the stomach and bowels. Mr. W. S. Green, a well known business man of Crown Point, N. Y., wrote the following letter very recently: "Nearly ten years ago I was a mere shadow, and, according to the judgment of quite a number of doctors, my end was in sight. My troubles reduced my weight from 175 to 115 pounds. Finally an eminent physician prescribed Dr. Howard's Specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and I soon improved. My weight went to about 150 pounds, and has stayed around there. Previous to taking the specific I had to live on rice and rye bread but now I eat anything and everything. I always take a dose after a heavy night meal, such as a banquet, and am all right in the morning."

It is the medicine that cured Mr. Green that the Potters' Drug Store is selling at half price and guaranteeing will cure.

learners in these words: "I would that we might spend our lives as God intended we should spend them; I would that all who profess and call themselves Christians would practice Christianity; I would that we all might listen to the pleading of the still small voice and be able to give a worthy answer to the query, Whither Goest Thou? We can get nothing that is not the gift of God and we should love and fear Him."

MISSIONS IN INDIA

The Subject of Eloquent Addresses By Rev. J. A. McConnee Yesterday.

Rev. J. A. McConnee last night spoke at the First U. P. church on the subject of missions in India. Rev. Mr. McConnee has been engaged in mission work in that country a number of years and is now in this country on a furlough.

The central idea of the lecture was that the work should go on with redoubled vigor. Despite the hardships it entailed; despite the stupendous task before missionaries he was very optimistic in picturing the results attainable by them among the Hindus who have no words in their language for patriotism, conscience or even for God as we understand the meaning of the word. There are 3,500 converts now, he said, who are splendid Christians, and the number is fast increasing relatively.

Mr. McConnee filled the pulpit at the Second U. P. church in the East End yesterday morning. His talks served to arouse the interest of his congregations in a wonderful manner to the necessity of strengthening the foreign missions.

INTERESTING SERVICES

Large Congregation at East End Churches Yesterday—Several
Special Sermons.

Church services in the East End
were well attended at the different churches at both the morning and
special services of more than ordinary interest.

At the Erie street Methodist, the pastor, Rev. G. W. Orent, preached
at the morning service from the text,
"The Great Question," and drew much
of comfort and interest from it for his auditors. In the evening the officers of the Junior Epworth League were installed, after which the pastor
delivered a short address for the children.

Rev. N. M. Crowe preached on the topic, "The Form of a Servant," at
the morning service and on "A Certain Man" at the evening service to large
and appreciative audiences.

Rev. J. A. McConnee, a missionary
from the United Presbyterian church
to India, occupied the pulpit of the Second U. P. church, lecturing upon missionary topics to quite a large congregation.

PANAMA IN A PANIC

Newspaper Office Visited by Army Officers and Entire Edition Destroyed.

GOVERNOR MAKES HIS ESCAPE

Warned of Coming of Troops—Secretary of Finance Refuses to Be Arrested—Cable Agent Refuses Message from United States Consul.

Panama, Colombia, July 27.—Not
since the days of the last revolution,
when an attack upon the city by the Liberals was feared, has there been
such a panic in Panama as occurred
Saturday night. The office of El Lapiz, the organ of the Liberal party on
the isthmus, was visited by officers of the general staff of the army, who destroyed the edition of the newspaper.
One of the directors was slightly
wounded, but managed to escape.

The next event came like a bomb-
shell. A company of soldiers, apparently under orders of General Vasquez Cobos, commander of the National forces, surrounded the residence
of Governor Mutis, but the governor
and his wife, who is an American
woman, having been warned a few minutes before the arrival of the troops, succeeded in escaping. General Huertas, commander of the battalion of Colombia, when he learned
of the El Lapiz incident, repaired to
headquarters, where he found General
Cobos. According to current reports
the latter ordered General Huertas to remain in quarters. Exactly what has taken place is unknown, but it is said
that Dr. Aristides Arjona, secretary
of the government; Fernando Arango,
chief of police, and Efraim Navia,
a member of the departmental superior
tribunal of justice, are under arrest.
The last named for trying to argue
with General Cobos the illegality of
his action.

Secretary Resists Arrest.

An attempt also is said to have been made to arrest Senor Guerra, secretary of finance, but he refused to accompany the officer who went to his house to arrest him, and when the officer returned with soldiers to effect
his capture Guerra had departed. The only civil official on the street was Mayor Ossa. Governor Mutis spent
the night at the British consulate, but it is reported that he will take refuge
in the American consulate.

United States Consul Gudge made
several unsuccessful attempts to secure an audience with General Cobos,
who is a brother of the minister of
war. It is reported that General Cobos offered the governorship to different Conservatives, who refused to accept, and that he himself will assume
civil command. It is said that Consul
Gudge attempted to send a cablegram
to Arthur M. Beaupre, the United States minister at Bogota, but that
the agent refused to accept the message, claiming that the lines were interrupted, in spite of the fact that it is known that press messages were accepted.

It is thought that perhaps orders to refuse messages to Bogota have been issued to the cable company by the military authorities.

Government Held Responsible.

The national government in certain quarters is being held responsible for much of what has happened because
the soldiers have not been paid for some time and Governor Mutis declined to give more of the money of the department of Panama for national expenses, arguing that the central government owes the department
over $2,000,000, besides having obligated the department by a recent decree to pay the salaries of all civil national employees. The refusal of Governor Mutis is the origin of the discord between the civil and military authorities.

Violent articles written in El Lapiz
against what the Liberals call the assassination of General Victoriano Lorenzo, the leader of the guerrillas during the recent revolution, who was court-martialed and shot May 15, precipitated events. The effect of what is now going on upon the Colombian congress, it is believed, will be favorable to the canal treaty, for the enemies of the treaty, it is now believed,
will be easily convinced of the necessity of certain clauses which it contains in regard to the control of this zone.

Colon, Colombia, July 27.—This city
is perfectly quiet, as the coup on the part of General Cobos against Governor Mutis, of the department of Panama, is known only to a few here.
Developments are expected later.

of this province, has been called to

Go Prepared.

In preparing for your summer outing a little forethought may save you no end of trouble. Mr. John H. Manly, a dry goods
merchant, of Belleville, R. I., while packing
an outfit for camping a few weeks on Narragansett Bay, put in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for emergency use. The second day in camp
his little boy was taken with cramp colic.
The first dose of this remedy gave relief and the second dose effected a cure. Think of the pain and suffering this boy would have had to endure without this remedy at hand
to relieve him. Such cases often result fatally. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

TRAIN CREW KILLED ORDERS

And Four Lives Are Sacrificed in Collision on Chicago Great Western.

St. Paul, July 27.—Two trains met
in a head-on collision on the Chicago
Great Western railroad and four men were killed and about 25 or 30 passengers injured.

The dead: Charles Merkert, engineer of passenger train, Minneapolis;
H. Coker, fireman riding in passenger engine, but not on duty; H. Helman,
engineer of freight train; Fred Horton, Dodge Center, Minn., passenger.

Fred Horton, the passenger who was killed, was said to have been standing
in the vestibule of the front sleeper
talking to a friend, and was instantly killed, while his friend escaped injury.

Two trains were the Twin City
limited and a fast freight. The limited
was running as a first section from Oelwein, to Minneapolis. The second section consisted of an excursion train
running from Des Moines to Minneapolis and was three hours behind time.

The fast freight southbound received an order at Dodge Center reading
that the second section of the passenger train was three hours late and the crew evidently misread the order and
attempted to make Vlasaty siding, between Dodge Center and Hastings,
Minn., thinking that it was the limited
that was late. Meanwhile the limited
was pounding along at regular speed
and met the freight head-on just after the limited had rounded a curve at Vlasaty.

The baggage and buffet cars were completely wrecked and turned crosswise of the tracks. The first sleeper
back of the buffet was badly smashed
in the forward end and the four cars remained intact on the track.

These cars were used to bring the dead and injured to St. Paul and Minneapolis, where the injured were given surgical attendance. None of the passengers were seriously injured but cuts
and bruises were freely distributed.

Interesting statistics are made public by the British Sanitary Institute, showing that since public health became a science at the beginning of the late queen's reign the average life of a man has been increased by three years and that of a woman by five years. Thirty years ago typhoid killed 374 people out of every million. Today, with an enormously increased population, it kills a bare 100 per million. Typhus, which 60 years ago struck down another 300 per million, has been literally stamped out by sanitation. Consumption has now fallen within the purview of sanitary authorities. During 1861 to 1865 death by consumption claimed 2,526 persons yearly out of every million living. Today a better acquaintance with the laws of health has cheated death of half the harvest of 1861 to 1865 from this disease. The same ratio would undoubtedly be found true of smallpox and other diseases that were once considered almost absolutely fatal. Medical science may waste time and effort in searching for the elixir of life, but its efforts in the directions of stamping out disease by encouraging sanitation and cleanliness are certainly bearing good fruit.

The ninety-three years of life of Pope Leo is another illustration of the fact that scholars, philosophers and professional men often live to extreme old age, with a fair enjoyment of all their faculties to the end. But who ever hear of a professional athlete living to the span often reached by these men of sedentary habits?

Bad examples are infectious. An Illinois town is now patterning after a Delaware community where mob law ruled. It is also getting the worst of it. Breaking the law to mete out justice is impolitic as well as unprofitable. Better to grease the machinery of the courts and run it a little faster.

Russia is said to have arranged with French capitalists for a loan of $25,000,000. This is a significant move and will do more to convince the world that Russia is getting ready for war over the Manchurian question than anything that has hitherto occurred.

The theory that cigarette smoking weakens the intellect seems to be strongly borne out in the case of those Pennsylvania boys who could not resist the habit even while they were riding on a powder wagon, and consequently blew up themselves and the load.

As long as ladies are insulted on the streets of East Liverpool in broad daylight public indignation will continue deep and strong against the city council which has voted to reduce the police force.

The pertinent query regarding the hospital sprung Saturday by a local contemporary will be found fully answered in the columns of the News Review of the same date.

There is a painful quiet along Broadway where Midway noises lately resounded, but the residents are not complaining.

It is not a good time to talk of reducing the police force. There are still thieves and hold-up men left in the city.

There are worse railroads than the C. & P. A train has arrived at a Texas town three years late.

Though Mr. Bryan has changed to the defensive, he cannot avoid being of fensive.

John H. Brannon.

John H. Brannon, one of the oldest and perhaps the very best known operative potter in East Liverpool, died at his home near the Thompson boulevard at 6 a. m. today, after a prolonged illness with consumption.

Mr. Brannon was born at Summitville, Franklin township, this county, 59 years ago, and has no living relatives except his wife and a step brother, Irene Darrah. He moved to East Liverpool 44 years ago and has been a resident of the city ever since. He learned the trade of kilnplaster and was engaged at that occupation until a few years ago when he was compelled to give up his work on account of the condition of his health.

John Brannon was one of the earliest and most active labor leaders the city ever knew. He, in company with George H. Owen, J. Q. A. Fowler and a few others, was instrumental in having organized the first assembly of the Knights of Labor ever instituted in East Liverpool in 1882. He followed the movement from that time until his retirement only a short time ago. Mr. Brannon was a member of the company that was organized to operate the Potters' Co-operative company now the Dresden. He suffered financial loss in this concern along with a large number of other operatives. Later he was identified with the Union company, which purchased the old Wyllie plant a few years ago.

Mr. Brannon was a member of the local Red Men, having filled all the important positions in the gift of the order. He was also a member of the Pocahontas degree of the order. He was a man of sterling integrity, numbered his friends by the score and was generous to a fault. The city has lost a good citizen and the cause of organized labor a true and loyal supporter.

Funeral services will be held from the late home Wednesday afternoon. Dr. David Jones, pastor of the M. P. church, officiating. Interment will be made at Riverview.

John Smith.

John Smith died at his home on Seventh street, Wellsview, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock and was buried this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. C. E. Clark, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, conducting the funeral services at the house. He was 65 years old and leaves a wife and three children. For the past 15 years his case has been a puzzle to physicians for the reason that his heart action was only half that of the average man. He was a strong man physically and until within a few days of his death had performed manual labor. Just what caused his heart's inertia has not been explained.

Hungarian Wife Seeks Divorce.

Lisbon, July 27.—(Special).—Susie Korp, of Salem, through Attorneys Taylor & Baker, asks to be divorced from John Korp. She says they were married in Austria-Hungary in 1882 and have four children. She charges extreme cruelty, alleging that her husband has frequently used abusive language and has failed to provide for her. She also charges unfaithfulness on July 14 at Salem and on numerous other occasions.

CAR WRECKED

The Lives of the Crew And Four Passengers Were Endangered.

Car No. 17, Conductor T. M. Henderson and Motorman W. Nelson, was wrecked near the eastern terminal of the East Liverpool railway at 1:30 Sunday morning and the lives of the car crew and four passengers were endangered. Luckily all escaped with but a few minor bruises.

When within several hundred feet of the end of the line the car struck a gear box that had dropped off car No. 14. The front trucks passed over the obstruction, but the rear wheels were thrown from the track and the body of the car was thrown violently against the embankment. The escape of those on board is miraculous, as the car was running at a fast rate when the accident occurred.

The wrecking crew removed the car to the power house, where it will be repaired.

GOOSE-PASTURING

A Young Barber the Victim, Both Boys and Girls Taking Part in the Affair.

Officers Houser and Henthorne were called upon to investigate a peculiar case Saturday evening. It is alleged that a young barber of Main street was goosepastured on Saturday evening, a number of young men and women participating in the sport. The young man is said to have been stoned and otherwise roughly treated.

The officers succeeded in getting the names of all who took part in the affair and arrests are probable.

So He Shot Her and Then Killed Himself—Woman Will Recover.

Tonapah, Pa., July 27.—David McMains, a carpenter, residing at McKeesport, attempted to kill Mrs. Bessie Walton, aged 26, also of McKeesport. After shooting her through the cheek, knocking out several teeth, he turned the smoking weapon on himself and blew out his brains, dying on his way to the hospital. The woman will recover.

The shooting occurred at the home of Mrs. Walton's mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Walton. McMains followed the young woman here and tried to persuade her to get a divorce from her present husband and marry him, but she refused.

The coroner found a letter in McMains' pocket in which he warned "my single friends to stay away from women they cannot get, especially the married ones." He further says that Bessie was afraid her husband would kill her, and so both Bessie and he concluded to die. McMains was aged about 26 years and unmarried.

Another Attempted Assassination.

Jackson, Ky., July 27.—There is much excitement here over an attempt to assassinate Riley Coldiron. Coldiron was with James Carr when two shots from ambush were heard, one of the bullets passing through Coldiron's clothing. Coldiron testified before the grand jury the past week that he saw Britton and Spicer with Curtis Jett at the time Jett is charged with killing Thomas Cockrill, and when Britton and Spicer were not indicted certain county officials attempted to have Coldiron indicted for perjury.

Boys Escape from House of Refuge

New York, July 27.—More than a score of youths of the House of Refuge on Randall's island tunneled under and through the thick wall surrounding the building and five succeeded in escaping. A dozen others who were discovered in the act of escaping submitted to arrest and seven who tried to get away were captured.

Strike at Youngstown.

Youngstown, O., July 27.—The molders' and foundrymen's strike is on in earnest. Some 400 men are out in the different foundries of the valley. None of the concerns which are affiliated with the foundrymen's association have signed the scale. The men expect the Republic Iron and Steel company to sign within a few days.

Prominent Politician Dead.

New York, July 27.—News of the sudden death in Butte, Mont., of former Congressman John M. Clancy, one of the most widely-known Democratic politicians in Brooklyn, has reached his relatives. Mr. Clancy went west two weeks ago with Miss Annette Bacon, a niece.

Woman's Body Found in Sewer.

Newspaper Offices Flooded.

London, July 27.—Heavy rains Saturday night over the south of England caused serious floods and great damage in London. The underground railway was flooded and many printing rooms of London newspapers, built in the underground district between Fleet street and the Embankment, were flooded and unable to print Sunday editions until late in the afternoon. The heavy rains coincided with a high tide of the Thames, inundating several low-lying districts.

WELLSVILLE

No Saloons Were Open in Wellsville Yesterday—Strict Orders Issued.

This city enjoyed the unusual experience of being strictly dry yesterday and the greatest interest was manifested by those who were thirsty and had failed to provide themselves with a Sunday liquid supply on Saturday night. The East Liverpool contingent arriving here in the afternoon were amazed to find Wellsville "tighter" than their own prohibition city so far as obtaining intoxicants was concerned. In the penitentiary there was nothing doing and for the first Sunday in long time all the saloons were really closed.

Mayor Fogo issued orders late Saturday night that the saloons must obey the law and close yesterday. Early Sunday morning Chief Houser made the rounds and found ten of them open and dispensing drinks over the bar to customers. The chief ordered them to clear and shut the places at once, the order being promptly obeyed.

Mayor Fogo does not propose to have this city a mecca for toppers on Sunday and is also trying to reduce the number of native Sunday drinkers.

CROASMUN DEAD

Exposure Hastened the Death of the Wellsville Invalid.

Grant Croasmun, who was rescued in a dying condition from uraemic poisoning from a sinking house boat, in which he lived, a few nights ago, died Saturday afternoon, the exposure incident to the rescue hastening death. His remains were taken to the home of his brother Will, Twentieth and Nevada streets, from which the funeral occurred this afternoon. Rev. L. F. Lavery, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, conducting the religious exercises.

Mr. Croasmun leaves a two-year-old son, one brother and one sister, the latter being Rachel Croasmun, matron at the Cleveland & Pittsburg passenger station here.

A Fall Due to Heat Prostration. Farmer the Victim.

A. G. McPherson, residing on a farm three miles north of this city, was overcome by heat last Tuesday afternoon and fell from a load of hay in the field where he was harvesting. He was carried to the house and the usual restoratives applied. He rallied and then grew worse, but no physician was called until Sunday morning when Dr. A. L. Robinson, of this city, was sent for.

The doctor found the patient to be suffering from two broken ribs in addition to the effects of the sunstroke, and it is doubtful if he recovers.

CAUGHT TAKING POISON

A Wellsville Man Said to Have Attempted Suicide, But Was Prevented.

Horace Barton, of Nevada street, who is employed in the rolling mill, is reported to have taken a small dose of carbolic acid with suicidal intent on last Friday evening. He was caught in the act, and before swallowing enough to effect his desire, the poisonous fluid was taken from him.

It is said that financial troubles caused the action.

Drunk and Quarrelsome.

Improving the School House.

The township school board of Liverpool township are making some extensive improvements on the old school building at Walker and the surrounding ground and even now the place looks entirely different. The school building has been painted, both inside and out, the building is to be entirely renovated and the grounds placed in better shape. A new path for the scholars has been made, leading from the building to the road on the hill.

Broken Rail Caused Wreck.

A freight wreck occurred at Freeman, on the river division, early Sunday morning in which several freight cars were derailed. The wreck is said to have been caused by a broken rail. The wreck train was called out, and after a couple of hour's time, replaced the derailed cars on the track again. No one was injured and but little damage was done with the exception of tying up the road and delaying traffic.

Reig's Body Shipped Home.

If Mi-o-na Does Not Build Up Good, Healthy Flesh Will Need Will Return Your Money.

Of all the remedies in Will Reed's popular drug store, there are very few he is willing to sell with a guarantee to refund the money if they do not give satisfaction.

Mi-o-na, the famous flesh-forming food and cure for stomach troubles, has done such wonders among his customers that he is now advertising. "If Mi-o-na does not give a noticeable gain in weight, if it fails to cure indigestion and all stomach troubles, come back to my store and get your money."

Anyone who has been losing flesh or who has always been too thin, should use Mi-o-na. Thinness and emaciation are signs that the food is not properly assimilated and that you do not get the nourishment you should.

Mi-o-na mingles with the food you eat, aids its assimilation, tones up and strengthens the digestive organs, and puts the whole system in proper physical condition; it saves the digestive organs from exhaustive work. By its use the elements needed to put flesh on your bones will be selected from the food, and each day will show a noticeable gain in weight.

Commence the use of Mi-o-na today at Will Reed's risk. If it increases your weight and cures you of indigestion, it will cost you 50 cents, if it does not, Will Reed will pay for the treatment himself and return your money.

SOUTH SIDE

MANY ATTRACTIONS

Of High Character Will Hold the Boards at Rock Springs Park Theater.

The attendance at the presentation of the Passion Play at Rock Springs park theater last night was very large. The people of this city appreciate a good entertainment and Prof. McKenzie's production was more than satisfactory.

Manager McCollum has selected the artists for this week's stand at the theater with special care, and the patronage will undoubtedly be all that can be desired. The vaudeville bill is headed by Maxwell & Dudley, the singing comedians. These artists have traveled the best circuits in the country and are sure to please. Their sketch, "The Singing Lesson," is one of the best and most novel on the vaudeville stage.

Master Lonnie Follet, the child artist with the aggregation, has pleased audiences all over the country and is very clever.

George Yoeman is a German comedian of rare ability and as a jester has no superior.

Gourley Bros., who are not connected with the local celebrities by the same name, do an acrobatic turn which has earned the highest praise from the most eminent critics.

"Fun at Grigg's Corners" is a sketch originated and performed by Henderson & Ross, who have been so well received everywhere that their tour amounts to actual sensation.

Matinees will be given Monday, Tuesday, Friday and Saturday afternoons at 3 p. m.

Maxwell, the comedian, who does the clever turn with Dudley, is not J. H. Maxwell, the genial manager of the park, as many have been led to believe. J. Howard is not an actor, and has no ambition in that line. He can't act a lick and don't profess to know anything about the business. This statement is made in the hope that the patronage at the theater this week will not be lessened on account of the misunderstanding.

The program for the week at the park is as follows:

Tuesday—Lady Workers, Scio college, Scio.

Wednesday—Sharpsburg M. E. Sunday school, Sharpsburg, Pa.

Thursday—Millvale M. E. Sunday school, Millvale, Pa.

Friday—Panhandle division (Columbus to Pittsburg) picnic.

CRUP PROSPECTS

In West Virginia Are Fair—Fruit Poor. Plenty of Chestnuts.

It is said that there never was such a prospect for chestnuts in the collection of the oldest citizens of Hancock county. As far as the timber can be seen young chestnuts loom up prominently and the tops of the trees seem to topple over under their weight.

The grass and oats and corn crop will be splendid, but the apple crop and the prospect for fruit is not so good. Many states depend yearly upon West Virginia for their supply of winter chestnuts, and the fruit raised in this state is shipped to all the larger cities in the United States. After the first effective frost the shipment will be begun.

LIBERAL DONATION

Promised Chester Presbyterian Church By John Shrader—Building Plans Accepted.

The trustees and building committee of the Presbyterian church of Chester met in the Mercer block Saturday evening and the question of plans for their new church building was discussed.

New plans were submitted by several architects, including one by Thayer Bros., of New Castle. After spending several hours discussing the various plans the board decided the original plans of Architect A. W. Scott on which they had received bids, were more satisfactory.

John Shrader made the board feel good by saying, "Build the church according to the original plans and I will make a donation of $500."

Mr. Shrader was so pleased with the plans of Architect Scott that he said, "Yes, put me down for another $100 for seating."

The board promptly instructed Mr. Scott to make a few minor changes in the foundation to suit a level lot, and proceed to contract with Finley Bros. for the construction of the building.

Three cars of a westbound freight train on the Panhandle were almost instantly demolished this morning about 8 o'clock near Kenilworth, one mile east of Congo. The crew of the train escaped without injury. The track was blocked and the passenger train, due in Chester at 9:30, was about four hours late.

The engine of the train had cut loose from the cars to do some switching, leaving the cars in motion. The engine was brought to a stop to avoid a collision with a truck that had been left on the track and the cars crashed into it.

Blinded by a Shock. Samuel Games, an employee in the Moundsville coal mine, having formerly resided in Hancock county, received a shock from a live wire about a month ago and has been partially blind and unable to work ever since. He became so despondent over his condition that Friday evening he made an attempt to end his life by taking strychnine. Dr. Woodruff was called and saved his life. It is thought that he had taken about 20 or 25 tablets of the poison and it would have ended his life had he not received medical aid at once. Games has a wife and two children.

A Bridge at Brilliant. A Wellsburg exchange says: The signs of the times point to the fact that there will be a bridge across the river at this point to Brilliant. The commerce between Wellsburg and Brilliant has shown a marked increase in the past few years, and while the bridge is a thing of the future it will not be so long deferred when Brilliant is once aroused to the possibilities of her splendid manufacturing sites.

Disputed With Motorman. Hence Marshall was arrested Sunday afternoon on a charge of disorderly conduct. He was fined $5.00. Marshall became involved in a dispute with Motorman Johnston as to the proper place for stopping cars on the Rock Springs line. The motorman made the information.

VALUABLE DOGS

The Deed Evidently Malicious, Though a Farmer Says They Were Chasing Sheep.

Two valuable dogs, the property of City Solicitor George E. Davidson, were shot last Friday morning near the Fernwood camp, and it is said the circumstances surrounding the occurrence are absolutely without precedent. The details are so revolting and the motives of the perpetrator evidently malicious.

A large party of young men had established headquarters at Fernwood, and had been engaged in fishing and hunting for several days. When they left the city two days ago, "Rod" and "Trip" were taken along. It had been the custom of those in charge to lock the dogs in the house during the night and each morning they were released for a run. On Friday morning the dogs were untied as usual and had not been absent from the camp long when "Trip" came running into the enclosure and it was immediately discovered that she had been shot. Sixteen slugs were found in the dog's body and the party began a search for the other dog.

The neighborhood was scoured in every direction, but no trace of the missing animal could be found. Late in the evening Captain W. M. Hill and several others located the carcass, which had been secreted in a dense thicket concealed on every side by thick underbrush.

The family of John Montgomery, who had insisted they had not seen the dogs, being confronted, confessed to having been thoroughly posted with the circumstances surrounding the shooting.

John Montgomery stated the dogs had been running his sheep, and he had shot them. He said he and his farm hand, Henry Bentley, had discovered the dogs running about among the sheep. Bentley went to the house and secured the gun. Returning he shot one of the dogs, and while his employer was examining the wound the other animal approached. Montgomery captured "Rod" and he was tied to a stake. Meantime the other dog had regained consciousness and ran to camp. Montgomery proceeded to his home, reloaded the gun and returned to where the dog had been tied, deliberately and maliciously shot him through the heart.

Mr. Davidson and the other members of the camping party insist that the dogs had not and would not run after sheep and are justly indignant. The owner had refused $100 for "Rod" only a few days before the brutal killing.

when the matter was put to a vote. Zimmerman has the endorsement and will select his own delegates. Thomas is probably the most rabid Bryan man in Ohio. Tom Johnson's plans have been laid bare to the world. He was successful in keeping them under cover for a long time, but someone gave things away after that conference held at his home last Wednesday and now it is patent to all that he wants the nomination for governor.

Governor Nash was expected home from his lake trip on Monday, but Saturday evening he wired that he would not return before Thursday. This is another disappointment to the friends and relatives of James Ryan, the Salem man who is hopelessly ill with tuberculosis in the hospital ward at the penitentiary, who are working to secure a pardon for him. They have no doubt but that the governor would pardon him at once if he were here.

Mrs. Haught will employ an attorney and fight hard for the job.

TWO FRANCHISES HAVE BEEN GRANTED

C. A. SMITH AND NEWELL SYNDICATE GET THEM.

Applications for Southside Street Railway Franchises Favorably Acted Upon By Hancock County Court.

The syndicate, owning the Newell tract in Hancock county, a mile west of Chester, was granted a franchise by the county court at New Cumberland today to build, operate and maintain an electric railway from Chester to Congo. The court considered the application all the morning and until late this afternoon before giving the syndicate the right applied for.

A petition signed by 500 prominent people of Hancock county was presented to the court in favor of the franchise. The exact route to be followed by the company could not be learned this afternoon.

As a result of the court's decision there are two companies now in possession of a franchise to run a line between the two points, C. A. Smith and others having been granted a franchise about a month ago.

SALOON KEEPERS ASKED TO APPEAR

Three saloonists are to appear before the mayor some time today to answer to charges preferred against them by Special Officer Todd, who served on the police department last week. The charges were preferred against the trio this morning and each has been notified to appear. They are T. O. Carman Ole Olson and James Walters.

Carman and Olson are charged with selling and keeping open after hours. Each will fight his case bitterly. It is thought that as a result of their arrest the validity of the club room law will be given a severe test. Both men have rooms over their saloons that are elegantly furnished and are said to be occupied by clubs, to which charters have been granted by the secretary of state and the saloonists contend that they have a lawful right to allow members of the club to congregate in the rooms at any time.

The affidavits designate the time of the alleged violations as Friday night. Neither saloon was entered by the officer. He charges that he saw Olson open a bottle of beer and heard incriminating noise. Todd called upon the entire night crew of officers to assist him in gaining entrance. They attempted to force an entrance in numerous ways, but were unsuccessful. Todd came near being killed as a result of his investigation. He was wandering around on the roof of a house next door to the saloon, when the occupant, Billy Humble, thinking him to be a burglar, went in search of a gun to dispatch the prowler. Failing to find the weapon Todd was allowed to escape.

Todd and Morris will appear against Carman. They allege that they saw the proprietor in the back room of the saloon.

Walters is charged with violating the screen ordinance. Officer Todd alleges that the violation was committed on both Friday and Saturday mornings.

had been living apart. Mrs. Jackson came to Sebring a short time ago and secured employment in a hotel. Jackson followed her here and secured employment as a teamster. Five days ago their differences were patched up and they began living together again.

The couple went to Alliance Friday where it is alleged they engaged in a drunken debauch. Mrs. Jackson provided the money for the trip. They returned to Sebring Saturday evening. Just what led to the shooting is still a mystery. It is stated that some time after retiring Mrs. Jackson asked for a drink and the husband became angry. He began to choke her, heedless of her screams of terror. Jackson had no weapon at that time and it is alleged that his wife produced the revolver with which she was later shot. It is thought she had attempted to protect herself from her husband's violence with the weapon. Before she could fire the incensed husband grasped the gun and during the scuffle it was discharged, the bullet striking in the door of the room.

The struggle resulted in Jackson gaining possession of the gun and he fired two shots into his wife's body, both of them taking effect in the abdomen. Jackson then fled from the place.

Neighbors were brought to the scene by the commotion and found Mrs. Jackson weltering in blood and almost unconscious. She was given all the attention possible but as soon as conveyance could be secured was taken to an Alliance hospital. After an examination the physicians stated that one of the wounds, while of a dangerous character, is not necessarily fatal. In the other wound, however, the bullet pierced the great intestines 14 times. Her death is certain to result in a short time. The wounded woman has been lingering in a semi-conscious condition and the latest report from her bedside is that she is slowly sinking.

GRAUSTARK

We have a good one for our readers now—GRAUSTARK, THE STORY OF A LOVE BEHIND A THRONE, BY GEORGE BARR MCCUTCHEON.

Marie Bankhead Owen, reviewing the story in the Bookworm, says: A practical bookman has just said, "no book since Trilby has taken so great a hold on the popular fancy as Graustark."

Being a story of love behind a throne, it teems with scenes of adventure and impassioned romance.

The author, George Barr McCutcheon, himself an American, has given the reader a noble example of an ideal American as hero.

The plot is thrilling and well sustained, the story being told in vivid, terse English.
